CUTS MADE IN UTILITIES IN WEST BERLIN

Use of Electricity and Gas Is Curtailed Because of Russian Economic Strangulation

RADIO INTERFERENCE

Berlin, July 8.—(P)—The Russians' economic strangulation of western Berlin today forced drastic new cuts in the use of electricity and gas.

Unemployment grew among the 2,000,000 Germans in the blockaded American, British and French sectors of the city. The western Allies were working out emergency employment schemes to keep idle industrial workers off the streets. An unemployment assistance plan giving workers between 50 and 60 percent of their normal wages was introduced.

Col. Frank L. Howley, the American commandant, announced that the western powers had decided to maintain the present food rations but to cut coal.

Unfavorable weather slowed the Allied airlift this morning. By 10 a. m. only 19 American transport planes had arrived at Tempelhof airfield.

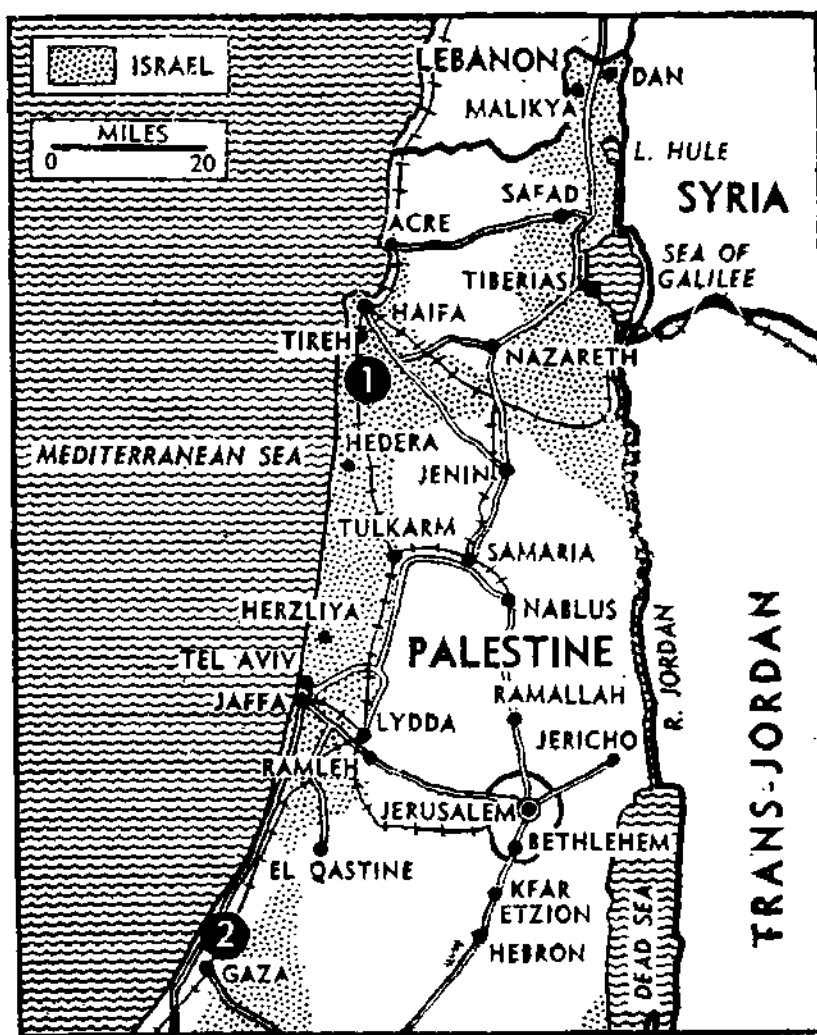

American fliers heard complaints from two of their comrades of strange radio interference in the air corridor to Berlin.

There were unconfirmed reports that Soviet Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky had gone to Moscow for consultations, presumably regarding an answer to the western Allies' protest over the Russian blockade.

The power cuts interfered with operation of the western military governments. Many offices were darkened. Some teleprinter lines were dead. Only the most important offices had daylight power. The headquarters of Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. military governor, used its own auxiliary power plant.

U. S. officials estimated the public utilities in the western sectors normally use a minimum of 5,000 tons of coal daily. The U. S. Air Force flew in 210 tons yesterday when it began "flying coalman" (Turn to Page Fourteen)

Pitched Battle Breaks UN Truce

A pitched battle between Jewish and Iraqi troops was reported at Tiberias (1) on the Haifa-Tel Aviv highway, breaking the UN's 28-day truce, which officially expires Friday. U. S. drivers of UN truce-truck convoys were fired on by Arabs south of Tiberias. Another UN driver reported being fired on near an Egyptian army road block at Gaza (2).

School Directors Arranging For Needed Improvements

Contracts let at the July meeting of school board, held Wednesday at the high school building, will provide for many repairs and improvements in the district's school buildings before the fall term gets under way in September.

One contract, let to the Schaeffer Electric Company at a price of $1,997, provides for installation of 96 new lighting fixtures at the Johnson and South street buildings. Another, let to Ludwig Peterson for $3,200, will replace existing windows at Beatty gym with glass blocks.

Others let by the board at this session were: Installation of the new rifle range at Beatty building, broken up into several contracts, but totaling $1,241.20; repair of certain classroom walls at South street, $737; plastering of outer room in superintendent's office, $125; both of these to Ludwig Peterson; curtain in the Beatty auditorium, with the Pittsburgh Stage and Equipment Studio for $485.35; lockers and steel cabinets to Ben Kinner for $739.30; repairs to the roof at the high school, Beatty, Seneca and McClintock buildings, to Hepler Roofing Company, the roof repairs at other buildings, to A. T. Burgess, the total also not in excess of $500.

Three new teachers were elected: George M. Frits, of Grove City, assigned to the commercial department at the high school for the distributive education program being arranged by Warren E. Miller; Joseph Spence, Oil City, assigned to Beatty building as art instructor; and Howard Anderson, Mr. Jewett, who will handle school studies, who will handle school studies in the elementary grades.

Dr. Carl E. Whipple, assistant superintendent of schools, reported on conferences he has attended recently in Harrisburg and Edinboro: the industrial-vocational survey being made by Russell Peck of Farrell; and on the safe-driving education program to be directed by James E. Springer.

Janitorial supplies and some printing supplies were ordered for the coming term, this purchase amounting to approximately $3,000.

The services of Clarence Swanson were employed to audit both the general and activity accounts. His fee not to exceed $600.

The board turned down the request that it finance continuation of the canning project sponsored in past years by the county commission and financed in part by the state department of public instruction.

Reports on the cafeteria program for the past school year showed expenditures of $41,299.03 and receipts of $41,194.53, or an operational loss of $104.50. Of that amount, the state department subsidized the program in the amount of $1,910.57. At Beatty and high school buildings, a total of 86,286 lunches were served and, aside from milk served with these lunches (Turn to Page Fourteen)

COURT ORDER TO END COAL TIEUP HINTED

Government Move to Halt Mine Walkout Reported Likely To Be Made Today

DRAWING COMPLAINT

Washington, July 8.—(P)—A government move to end the strike of the steel industry's coal miners by court order seemed likely today. The strike is in its third day.

Lawyers on the staff of Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, had only one step left in their investigation of the industry's charges that John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers union are violating the Taft-Hartley act.

That step was an interview with Lewis' chief attorney, Welly Hopkins. Denham wanted to get Hopkins' side of the charges before deciding whether a formal complaint against Lewis was warranted.

Denham aides already have obtained affidavits from steel industry representatives. They contend that Lewis' demand for a union shop without a prior NLRB election is illegal.

Denham was expected to issue a complaint against Lewis and the UMW during the day and to follow that up with the injunction block. The steel industry was willing to accept the agreement's $1 a wage boost and 20-cent welfare fund royalty provisions but balked at the union shop provision.

Under the union shop a worker must join the union within a set time after being hired. This form of compulsory unionism is okay under the Taft-Hartley act, but only if the workers involved agree to it in advance at an NLRB election.

Lewis and the commercial coal operators simply ignored the election requirement which the steel industry is insisting on.

Pittsburgh, July 8.—(P)—Approximately 78,000 soft coal miners remained idle today as United Mine Workers officials continued self-described "missionary" efforts to get them back in the pits.

About 55,000 are "captive" miners—employed in mines operated by steel companies who have refused to sign a new contract with John L. Lewis. The remainder are employed in commercial mines.

As the government neared its decision on whether to try and secure a court order against the strike, there was a return-to-work movement in some commercial mines. It was prevalent mostly in West Virginia where only 7,000 of 105,000 commercial miners remained idle.

The youth, Francis Cruise; his brother, Sheldon 26, and another boy, Leon Mountain, left the living room shortly before the blast shook the front of the Cruise home.

No one was injured, state police said.

The boy's father, Marion Cruise, estimated damage at $500.

For the last several weeks, state police said, the Cruise boy's name has been found painted in red or yellow paint on automobiles and buildings in and near Hollidaysburg. The name usually was accompanied by an insulting or obscene remark, police said.

"Cruise is yellow" was quoted as a mild example of the messages.

The buildings on which Cruise's name has appeared with the accompanying messages include the Blair county court house and several other public structures.

The boy, his parents and his friends said they could supply no reason for the persecution.

Young Cruise was a star half-back on the Hollidaysburg high school football team in his junior year last fall. He also is a member of the track team and is scheduled to take part in the junior Olympics this month at Philadelphia.

Truman Aides Count General Definitely And Finally Out Of The Presidential Race

Philadelphia, July 8.—(P)—Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath headed a new harmony move in his party's presidential contest today as southerners withheld their fire in a platform fight over civil rights. McGrath told a news conference that before the Democratic convention opens here Monday he expects to confer with party leaders who have been seeking to sidetrack President Truman. Chief of these has been James Roosevelt, California state chairman who still is talking about drafting Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower despite the latter's statement that he couldn't take the nomination.

Philadelphia, July 8.—(P)—President Truman's aides counted Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower definitely and finally out of the Democratic presidential race today.

They did this, a Truman spokesman told a reporter, after receiving private assurances from two close personal friends of the general. The word they took to the White House was that Eisenhower himself believes he left no loophole for a draft movement in his statement that he couldn't take any party's nomination.

The wartime European commander gave some public support to this view when he told a crowd of 5,000 gathered before his New York City home last night to chant "we want Ike" that "all I have to say, I said in a letter the other night."

Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath put the "definite and final" label on Eisenhower's draft renunciation at a news conference here yesterday, adding: "I couldn't conceive that the Democratic convention would exercise such poor judgment as not to take General Eisenhower at his word."

There was evidence, however, that some Democrats were, and some weren't.

James Roosevelt, traveling toward Philadelphia with the heavily 52-vote California delegation, said at Salt Lake he thinks Eisenhower still would accept the nomination if the convention opening Monday demonstrates that the party is united behind the general.

Mr. Truman's aides said some suggestions had been made that Roosevelt be named as the vice presidential candidate in a compromise move. They added they had rejected this proposal.

Out of the deep south, with its rebellion against Mr. Truman's civil rights program, came word from Senator Lister Hill of Alabama that he is not giving up the role call he could make it possible for Eisenhower's name to be the first offered to the convention.

Out of all this Truman-Eisenhower talk came a new voice to urge a compromise on Justice William O. Douglas of the U. S. supreme court.

Walter P. Reuther, president of the CIO-United Automobile Workers, said his union looks on Douglas as "a man whose universal appeal can unite the Democratic party and the independent vote."

The week's big show, carded for Saturday, already showed signs of slump.

On that day Roosevelt and other Democratic leaders have called a meeting to pick a substitute for Mr. Truman as top man on the ticket.

But the president's aides said some of those who were invited have been calling long distance to say they will have other business to attend to at that time.

As a sideshow, civil rights advocates promised some fireworks in platform committee hearings today.

Senator Francis J. Myers of Pennsylvania, head of the platform group, told reporters Mr. Truman will have a look at the party document before it goes to the convention.

Child Is Mangled By Michigan Bear

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., July 8.—(P)—A black bear lumbered out of Michigan's north woods yesterday, carried off the little daughter of a forest ranger and left her mangled body beside a forest stream.

Minutes after the body of three-year-old Carol Ann Pomrancky was found a quarter-mile from her parents' isolated cabin, an angered posse shot and killed the animal.

The searching party had been frantically called by Carol Ann's mother, 28-year-old Mrs. Arthur Pomrancky, who saw the bear carry off her daughter. Another child, six-year-old Allen, was playing in the cellar.

Stewart Has Ship In Bendix Race

Hollywood, July 8.—(P)—Actor James Stewart's mechanics are busy grooming his speedy entry for the Bendix trophy dash from Van Nuys, Calif., to Cleveland, O., in the National Air races in September.

Stewart, who was an Air Force colonel flying bombers during the war, purchased a war surplus P-51 Mustang and is having it practically rebuilt for the race. It will have a speed of at least 460 or 465 miles an hour.

Joe De Bona, Beverly Hills, Calif., who finished second to speed flyer Paul Mantz, Burbank, Calif., in the Bendix '47 year, will fly Stewart's entry. Mantz won with a P-51.

Stewart who plans to be in Cleveland for the finish of the race, has offered any prize money his entry wins to De Bona and the Blairhanna Fuel Co.

Former Residents Gather At Clarendon's Old Home Week

Wednesday, the third day of Clarendon's Old Home Week celebration, found many former residents and friends on hand for the Old Timers' get-together, held in IOOF Hall.

Supper was served from five until six o'clock and proved an hour for the renewing of many acquaintances. Activities for the evening were in charge of Miss Mae Gallagher and Charles Berry, Sr.

Despite the rather chilly weather, a good crowd turned out for the evening carnival.

Committee members from Marshall Larsen Post, VFW, sponsors of the celebration, announced that activities for Friday will include a "kiddies" parade, which will form at 6 p. m., and an amateur hour will follow immediately at the carnival grounds.

For the oldsters, there will be an old fashioned hooden in the Odd Fellows' hall, starting at 9:30 p. m.

Committee members reported this morning that many entries have been received from Bradford, Corry, Busti and Lakewood, N. Y., and many nearby communities, for the combination veterans' firemen's float parade which is scheduled for 6 p. m. Saturday.

Present indications point to the forecast that this will be the largest and most successful parade ever to take place in Clarendon and folks all over the county have made advance preparations to be in the front line of the parade route.

Full details of this affair will be announced in tomorrow's edition.

ISRAEL COMMUNIQUE STATES EGYPTIAN FORCES ATTACKING IN THE VICINITY OF ISDUD

Cairo, July 8.—(P)—Israel's high command announced today that Egyptian forces opened an offensive south of Tel Aviv in the waning hours of the Palestine truce.

Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator, said at Rhodes that the Arabs rejected his plea to extend the four-week truce, although the Jews had accepted the proposal.

Renewed Arab-Jewish war on a full scale was expected tomorrow. The Jewish high command said the Egyptians already were throwing air, artillery and armored car attacks at Beer Tuvia, 25 miles south of the Jewish capital.

Bernadotte asked both Jews and Arabs to withhold military action in Haifa and Beirut, Lebanon, until the end of the U. N. evacuation operations.

The U. N. secretariat and guards, mostly Americans, will leave Haifa by air for Beirut today and the American observers will fly home from Beirut on American planes.

Belgian and French observers are leaving their Palestine posts today and tomorrow.

Cairo, Egypt, July 8.—(P)—The Israel high command at Tel Aviv announced today that Egyptian forces "opened an offensive" on the Jewish settlement of Beer Tuvia, 23 miles south of the Jewish capital. The four-week Palestine truce has less than 24 hours to go. Both sides were known to be preparing to resume fighting.

There was no indication in the Tel Aviv announcement whether the alleged attack was on a large scale or was another of the periodic clashes such as have marked the cease-fire.

The Israel communique said the Egyptians were attacking in the direction of Isdud, where an Egyptian spearhead was trapped temporarily before the armistice.

Tel Aviv dispatches said air raid sirens sounded in the Jewish capital shortly after noon, but there were no immediate signs of hostile planes.

Reports from Amman, Trans-Jordan, said two U. N. observers based there had received orders to leave immediately. U. N. truce team, Col. W. B. McCoy, left.

In Tel Aviv, the head of the U. of Oxford, said he was informed by the Israel liaison officer that "the war is on."

The officer told him heavily fortified Beer Tuvia is being attacked by planes, armored cars and artillery.

U. N. truce observers were hastily evacuated from Tel Aviv this morning. All U. N. military personnel left by road convoy for Haifa, there presumably to board American destroyers assigned to the United Nations. Civilian employees, headed by John Redman, have been ordered to remain in Tel Aviv.

In Cairo, Ardel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the seven nation Arab League, announced that the U. N. mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte, has been ordered to remain in Tel Aviv.

Meyers was sentenced from 20 months to five years in prison last winter after his conviction on charges of inducing a former business associate to lie to senators inquiring into his handling of the contracts.

The general became deputy purchasing officer for the Army Air Forces after a tour of duty at Patterson Field.

His name entered the current hearings in testimony by Thomas F. Proctor, a former justice department official now employed by the postoffice department.

Referring to the period just ahead of that covered by the senate War Investigating committee in its hearings last summer, Proctor told the Bender group yesterday.

"As long as General Benny Meyers was running the Air Forces materiel command at Patterson Field, the Army Transportation Corps and the Air Forces Traffic Corps in Washington were relegated to a position of secondary importance in traffic matters."

"This committee could very well direct itself to an investigation into the so-called service contracts which General Meyers negotiated with the oil companies on aviation gasoline during the war."

Cool Weather In Nation Generally

Chicago, July 8.—(P)—Most of the midwest got more hot and humid weather today but there was promise of some relief within the next 48 hours. Except for the southeast section, the rest of the country reported generally cool weather.

Temperatures in the 90's were forecast again today for north central and plains states but cool air which moved into Montana today was expected to spread into the heat belt tomorrow and Saturday.

Early morning temperatures in the cool area included 56 at Harney, 60 at Tyndall, S. D., yesterday and was near that mark in the Dakotas, Minnesota, Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa.

Panelec Has A New Discount Date Schedule

Customers of Pennsylvania Electric Company in the Warren district will find a new discount date on future bills for electric service it was announced today by J. P. Fenstermacher, district manager. This is brought about by a change in local billing procedure which will stagger discount dates over a twenty-one day period rather than twelve days as has been the custom in the past.

Mr. Fenstermacher said it was necessary to provide more discount days to efficiently handle customer billing and to keep pace with the rapid growth of new residential and rural customers in the Warren area since V-J Day.

He advised customers to open their bills as soon as received and to familiarize themselves with the new date for payment at discount. Mr. Fenstermacher pointed out that future bills will fall due on the same date.

Senate Certain to Have At Least Eight New Members

By EDWIN B. HARRISON

Washington—(AP)—The Senate, sometimes called the world's most exclusive club, is certain to have at least eight new members at its next regular session.

Seven lawmakers are not seeking re-election. The eighth, Senator William Bradley Unstead (D.-N.C.) lost his primary race after serving about two years by appointment.

Because only one third of the Senate is elected every two years—unless other vacancies occur—there are 32 places to be filled this year. Thus a one-fourth turnover in seats open already is certain. Five of the seats are held by Republicans and three by Democrats.

GOP Leader Wallace H. White, Jr., of Maine, is giving up his front row desk after more than 30 years service in the House and Senate. He will be 71 on August 6 and has been in poor health recently.

A woman may take his place. Rep. Margaret Chase Smith won the Republican nomination. If she wins in September in usually Republican Maine, she will be the first woman senator elected without first being appointed to fill a vacancy.

Others giving up Senate seats without a contest are:

Senator Carl Hatch (D.-N.M.) who has served in the Senate since 1933 and is author of the Hatch "clean politics law." A personal

Letters to the Editor

Editor Times-Mirror:

I noted in last evening's issue in the item relative to Borough Council granting a pay hike to the parks and street department, one paragraph reading thus: "Borough policemen and firemen also had asked for a 10 percent boost at the June meeting, but their request was turned down by Warren Borough police and firemen is comparable to that in Oil City and Bradford."

A point that I should like to bring out, that our City Fathers failed to mention at the council meeting in question, is that Bradford and Oil City police departments both work 8 hour days while the faithful guardians of our town work ten hours a day.

We did not feel that we were unreasonable in asking a raise in wages to compensate for the extra hours that we put in on the job. We work twelve hours longer in a week and in a month's time that amounts to 48 to 55 hours or an entire week extra, and bear in mind we work that full week extra for the same or near same wage that the two above named cities do.

We have tried to talk the idea of an eight hour day, only after such towns as Kane, Corry, Youngsville, have been put on an 8 hour day. The answer we received is that it cannot be worked out without cutting down the efficiency of the department. If we were given the chance to show our city fathers a schedule of how the 8 hour day could be worked out, I firmly believe that we could show them better coverage of the entire borough than is now experienced by the present ten hour shifts.

It is true Council takes some action on this matter or face the future of having new men in their police ranks every two or three months. The main complaint of the new men that have left the job over the past two years has been the long hours, so why don't we get together and rectify this matter so that we will not have to be training new policemen every couple of months in years to come.

Trusting that my letter will clarify any idea any of the good citizens of our community may have concerning the police of Warren Borough being unreasonable, I remain,

Faithfully Yours,

A Warren Borough Patrolman.

Army and Air Bases to Be Reopened and Expanded

Map locates Army posts and air bases soon to be reactivated or expanded—some as much as eight times—to meet needs of the draft-expanding U. S. Army and Air Force. For reactivating Army posts, expected strength is given with station name. Both present and proposed new strength are shown for expanding posts. Of the 20 reopened air bases, one is a bombing and gunnery base on Matagorda Island, Tex. Present plans call for the Army to increase from 542,000 to 790,000 by July 1, 1949, and the Air Force from 382,000 to 440,000.

New Record Low Loss From Fire In Borough This Year

A new record low loss from fire will be established in Warren borough this year if the second half of the year goes as well as the first six months, Fire Chief C. A. Albaugh indicated today.

In a report to town council this week, Albaugh said Warren firemen responded to 18 calls during the month of June, but that all of the calls were for rubbish or grass fires and that no damage resulted.

Albaugh also pointed out that no building fire has occurred in the borough since last December when a blaze occurred at the plant of the Warren Axe and Tool Company.

"We're keeping our fingers crossed, however, and are hoping our good fortune continues," the fire chief added.

Numerous other routine reports were submitted at the July meeting of the solons.

That the intensive drive of borough policemen against traffic law violators is meeting with success is indicated by their report, which lists a total of 221 arrests and collection of $680 in fines.

Nineteen of the arrests were for drunkenness, 162 for parking violations (mainly overstay at the meters), 38 for crashing red lights, 20 for ignoring through traffic signs, two for reckless driving and 25 for driving too fast for conditions.

Receipts from parking meters in the five-week period between May 26 and June 30 totalled $2,087.54, police reported, compared with $1,336.00 for the month of June last year.

S. E. Kuhre, chairman of the parks committee, reported attendance at the municipal playgrounds during the first week was 10,000 compared with 4,195 in the first week of 1946 and 7,459 in 1947. Attendance figures during the next two weeks sagged considerably, however, due to rainy weather.

Kuhre also reported that the school board had okayed use of the toilet facilities in Lacy school building by youngsters at the Lacy playground, providing the borough split the cost of erecting two barricades in the hallways and provided attendants for the comfort stations. He said the school board had not yet given him any figures on the estimated cost.

Bi-State Golf Series Slated At Wellsville

The fifth of a series of 10 Bi-State Golf Association tournaments will be held Friday at the Wellsville, N. Y., Country Club, Friday, and everyone seems to feel certain it will be a day for sub-par scores.

"They'll tear this place apart Friday," remarked Armand Burke, the home pro. "We have the shortest courses in the section with a par 68. The velvety fairways and soft greens are made to order for low scores, I would say it will call for at least a 65 to win."

Armand, one-time amateur king of the area and now a pro during the summer vacation from college teaching duties, is a trifle conservative in his 65 statement.

Apparently Burke doesn't like to mention the fact that he has checked in with a competitive record of 63 on the Wellsville layout many times. In fact, only a year ago Armand headed the sectional field at Wellsville with a 63 and Toby Lyons of Warren, was second with 66.

Incidentally, Burke practically raves when he moves into the subject of Toby Lyons, defending open champion of the region.

"Toby is playing better than ever this year," remarks Burke. "We played a practice round recently at St. Bonas and Toby definitely is terrific. Reminds you of Ben Hogan Toby has a great style and you have to be plenty hot on the greens to beat him in a tournament."

Lyons won the first two tournaments this season, tied for second at St. Bonas and then shared first honors with John Trish of Bradford a week ago. Walter Andzel, Buffalo amateur champ, checked in with 67 at Bonas and this low figure for the year apparently is due to be topped Friday at Wellsville.

PORT ERIE EXPANDING

A $217,800 enlargement and improvement program will be carried out at Port Erie airport next year, it has been revealed by D. W. Kentzel, civil aeronautics administrator, with federal expenditures amounting to $210,000 and the city's share being $7,800.

SOLVE YMOA ROBBERY

Kane police solved the burglary and safe break-in at the community in short order last week. Officers were called when the safe was found cracked open in the YMOA and $28 missing. Questioning resulted in a 16-year-old youth being tripped up by his stories and confessing.

TOO MUCH TWINE

George ("Duke") Connelly, 40, of Erie was arrested when 900 feet of twine, and several hundred feet of netting string, allegedly stolen from the Barcelona Fish company, East Public Dock of that community, were found in his possession. Connelly, arrested by Erie City Detectives George Radaker and Art Bonamino, will be charged with larceny, Detective Captain James Niland said.

PROBE CORRY HOUSING

Frank S. Anderson, Erie rent director, said the federal government soon will begin a sweeping investigation into veterans' housing in Corry. The probe, Anderson said, will concern itself with houses built under regulations of the Federal Housing Authority. Anderson said vets complained they paid more than the law allowed for their homes and then got homes not up to specifications.

CAN YOU BEAT THIS?

Titusville Herald: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nilson and two sons, Dick and Norman, motored to Cleveland for the Fourth and attended the Cleveland-Detroit baseball games. The visit was especially interesting to Norman, the younger son, who was a member of the local Y. M. C. A. group of boys who were taken to Cleveland for a ball game in August, 1946. Norman had saved his seat checks for the game two years ago and was greatly surprised that the check for the games on Monday this week was identical.

BOYS MUST EAT

Says "The Bird" Column in the Kane Republican: There are strong indications that the Cornplanter Summer Camp operated under the Bradford "Y" may not prove profitable. . . . the camp has had several Kane youngsters and from reports, they have eaten the camp out. . . . the boys not only have acclaimed the camp cooks but justified their ratings by consuming terrific portions of food. Bob Donovan, of Kane, is reported to have set some kind of a helping record. . . . there are 97 camped this week—including the personnel directing the camp.

WARNS LICENSEES

Judge Herbert A. Mook Tuesday at Meadville lashed out at the disregard for law by liquor licensees in Crawford county. He warned all licensees in his jurisdiction that he would support the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board "in its honest efforts to enforce the law." His remarks came after he had dismissed an appeal by Frank and Mary Perry, operators of the Perry Grill in Meadville, who had asked that the liquor control board's 75-day suspension of their license be set aside. The Perry Grill had been cited for the intoxication of its owner, selling liquor to be consumed off the premises and other violations. He asked liquor control board representatives who were in court why they didn't make prosecutions in such cases, and the board men said they would in the future. Judge Mook, who had just finished passing sentence in a number of cases ranging from involuntary manslaughter to larceny, said that all of the persons appearing before him during the day had used as a defense the assertion that they had been drinking when they committed their offenses.

CANDIDATES AND PHOTOGENIC FAMILIES

The New York visit of Gov. and Mrs. Earl Warren and their three pretty daughters prompts James Thrasher, NEA editorial writer, to consider the important and underestimated role of candidates' children in American politics.

When a man is a mere dark horse or favorite son or even a front-running contender his domestic setup is of passing interest. He has to stand pretty much on his public record and statements. But once he is chosen to run for either of the country's two top offices, his children, if any, become public property.

Thanks to these offspring—and the co-operation of photographers and editors—the candidate suddenly becomes a human being as well as a politician. Millions of voters who are also parents discover that the candidate is a "family man." This is not a unique accomplishment or, in itself, a badge of virtue. But we wouldn't be surprised if, in past elections, a covey of young hasn't tipped a few votes of sentimental parents in favor of the candidate-father.

The wise candidate, we believe, should try to have some fairly young and, if possible, pretty children at the time he's making his big pitch for high office. Theodore Roosevelt's six and Franklin D. Roosevelt's five didn't hurt their chances a bit. We even know some bitter opponents of the second Roosevelt who would grow momentarily tender and forgiving at the sight of the president reading Dickens to the assembled family at Christmas-time.

So Governor Warren's six children, along with Governor Dewey's two, may be put down as assets to the Republican ticket. The candidate for vice president wisely took only the girls on tour, so as to complement rather than overwhelm his running mate's accomplishments as a parent. We assume that Mr. Warren is saving the three boys as a sort of first team to throw into the campaign later on when the going gets really hot.

Sometimes this political publicity is as helpful to the children as it is to their father. One of Woodrow Wilson's daughters was launched on a brief singing career during her father's tenure of office. And we would guess that Mr. Truman's residence in the White House has helped Margaret about as much as her voice has.

On the other hand, candidates' children may get an early and disillusioning taste of the fickleness of public interest. The recent news that Mr. Roosevelt's granddaughter, Miss Anna Eleanor Boettger, was getting married recalled that she was the "Sistie" of "Sistie" and "Buzzie," now almost forgotten, but, in the early New Deal days, probably the most famous brother-and-sister act since Fred and Adele Astaire.

AMENDS FOR INDIFFERENCE

The handful of Americans who broadcast for the enemy during the war not only worked actively for their country's defeat but dishonored their American heritage in doing so. Yet the postwar indifference toward them, both public and official, has done scant honor to that heritage and to those who fought to defend it.

Some whose broadcasts were only slightly less poisonous than Robert Best's have been lost track of, or never brought to trial, or acquitted. But Federal Judge Francis J. W. Ford has made some amends for this indifference by sentencing Best to life imprisonment for his treasonable work on the Nazis' behalf.

Judge Ford deserves the country's congratulations for giving Best what he deserves.

Look for a hike in the present gasoline tax. Governor James H. Duff Wednesday announced a general pay increase for employees of the State Highway Department as a deserving reward for such personnel. In connection with the increase the governor notes the coming legislature session may be asked to increase the gasoline tax.

Those Junior and Sunset baseball leagues are providing a lot of genuine recreation for baseball lovers of the community this season, along with National Forge attractions at the State Hospital and Irvine over the week-ends.

Warren county farmers are completing the harvesting of the best hay crop that has been reported in the area in years.

A word to the wise motorist: Drive with care and caution the next few days over Route 6 between Pittsfield and Warren.

From earliest times human beings have gathered around a fire, says a writer. And after the fire, the sale!

Mackenzie's Column

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The battle of Berlin between Russia and the western Allies—pivotal engagement of the cold war—is moving sharply towards a show-down.

The blunt demand made by America, Britain and France that the Reds immediately lift the food blockade against the civilian population of western Berlin is calculated to bring things to a head. This blockade of course represents a savage attempt to force the democracies to evacuate the city by torturing the German people. Having got the western allies out of the way, the Bolsheviks could form a separate state in eastern Germany, with Berlin as its capital.

Washington, London and Paris struck simultaneously but separately, and for the first time directed their demand to Moscow rather than to the Soviet authorities in Germany. They have called Stalin's hand, and at a time when the iron curtain is showing considerable wear and tear at vital points like Yugoslavia, Finland and Czechoslovakia.

Equally impressive was the announcement in Washington that the ambassadors of Canada and five western European nations had been called into conference with Undersecretary of State Lovett. The five Europeans are Britain, France, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg, which recently formed an alliance. These conversations will have to do with possible American military support for the western European bloc.

This is the first time that Canada has been brought into discussions between the bloc and Washington but her inclusion is a natural one since her defensive interests interlock with those of the United States and Britain. Solidarity between Canada and America is vital to the well-being of the western hemisphere.

Whatever official attitude may be taken by Moscow towards the demand from the democracies that the Berlin blockade be lifted, there can be small doubt that the general European situation provides an anxious moment for the Muscovites. The defiance and dislike being registered by the three satellite states comes from counties which are strategic points in Russia's battle front through Europe. Finland and Yugoslavia are the anchors for the northern and southern wings respectively. Czechoslovakia was designated by the Reds to be the strong point of the center.

These signs of weakness developing in the Bolshevik battle-line certainly don't lend strength to the Russian campaign against the western Allies in Germany. When the battle line seemed unimpaired it was quite clear that Moscow was prepared to force the issue against the western powers by all means short of actual gunfire. Russia hasn't wanted war, but in order to further her Red revolution in Europe she has been willing to take many risks in an effort to browbeat the democracies.

The Allied notes calling for an end to the food blockade should force the Soviet to dislodge whether it has carried its challenge as far as seems smart at this juncture.

Will's Hospitality Isn't "Cracked"!

Ever since January, Will Dudley planned to give his living room that "new look"—planned to carefully refinish the woodwork and replaster the walls.

Every time Will got out the putty to start filling in the cracks, a neighbor stopped by to pass the time of day—and first thing you knew, there was a group of us helping Will do the job up right. After Will called a halt to the evening's work, we'd sit around the fire enjoying a friendly argument and a sparkling glass of mellow beer.

So Will's living room doesn't look like it did a year ago—but it's by far the most "livable" living room I know. A place you can always drop in for good talk, good beer, and a warm welcome.

From where I sit, so long as Will puts that atmosphere of hospitality and good fellowship ahead of everything else, we'll all be happy to help Will change the looks of his living room any time he wants.

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

1928
A cottage belonging to Nancy Meyers on the Conewago Creek near Akaley, was totally destroyed by fire about two o'clock this morning.

On Wednesday evening Ted Weems and his Victor Recording Orchestra will play at a dance in the Woman's club.

Speedometer test signs have been placed on the straight stretch on the highway between Pittsfield and Youngville, and local motorists have an opportunity to check up instruments on machines.

The Kinima Community Club met Monday evening in the Community House, with the new president, Rev. O. H. Bloomster and decided to hold a picnic in Fred Smith's picnic grove at Sugar Run.

At the July meeting of the Warren borough council purchase of a new street sweeping machine and a new motorcycle for the police department were the principal items of business.

A special meeting of the Warren board of school directors was held yesterday afternoon, called upon the request of the Glade township board of directors to secure data on the Warren elementary housing capacity of the schools with the purpose of forming a joint school district.

Members of the Warren Fire Department have launched an ambitious plan to create a fund to be used for pensions, and the first activity of the newly-organized "Gordon Club of the Warren Fire Department" will be the sponsoring of a picture "Always Goodbye" at the Library Theatre.

There's More to An Ad Than Reading It!

Here are the necessary steps to reproducing an ad in the Times-Mirror:

1. After the Ad Man has sold the ad it must be properly laid out and scheduled.
2. It goes to the mark up man who marks the type sizes and styles on it.
3. The Linotype operators set all the machine type.
4. The printer sets the hand type.
5. The compositor puts all the pieces together. Proofs it.
6. The proof reader makes the necessary corrections.
7. The floor man sets it in the page forms.
8. The stereotyper rolls a mat of the complete page form.
9. The press room boys make a round cast of this page.
10. Put it on the press... start the press... clean out the nigger heads and sinks on the page.
11. Now the paper is ready for the circulation department... it goes either to the newsboy or the Post Office.

Here Mr. Merchant is the reason why we at the Times-Mirror must have your copy not later than 2 P. M. two days before publication...

May we have your co-operation

Rent Adjustment Regulations Revised, Effective July 10

Area Rent Director Frank S. Anderson has announced the Rent Adjustment Regulations have been revised, effective July 10, so that:

1. Under a new adjustment revision, no landlord need operate units under rent control at a loss. This is in keeping with the provision in the Housing and Rent Act of 1948 that the Housing Expediter shall give "due consideration" to landlords operating at a loss.

2. A small landlord (one who owns not more than four rental dwelling units) will have no difficulty in qualifying for a justified hardship adjustment. He will merely have to fill out a simplified "short form" on which he will show how his net income has fallen because of increased costs of fuel, taxes, utilities and insurance.

"These changes," Mr. Anderson said, "will, I believe, remove many of the complaints against the adjustment provisions that some landlords have made in the past. The Office of the Housing Expediter has now worked out what I believe is a complete answer to the objection that a landlord operating at a loss could not always obtain relief."

"The second change, which permits the small landlord to use the simplified short form in applying for a hardship adjustment, will take care of the complaint that small landlords do not keep books or records and therefore are not able to qualify for a hardship increase. The only record they now need in order to fill out the short form are tax receipts, insurance premium notices, and fuel and utility bills."

"If they have lost any or all of these simple records, they can get the information they need from the tax office, their insurance agent, or their fuel and utility company offices."

An explanation of the changes follows:

1. Operating at a Loss

Any landlord who believes that property owned by him is being operated at a loss may file with the area rent office a landlord's petition for increase in rent due to operating at a loss (Form D-99).

In filling out this form a landlord will show his total income from the property (present annual scheduled rental income plus income plus other than rents) his total operating expenses for the current year, and by deducting one from the other he will arrive at his operating loss.

For determining operating expenses, the form includes an allocation schedule to be used by the landlord in figuring expense items which do not occur each year and which must, therefore, be spread over a period of years. The period of years shown in the table for each item must be used unless the landlord can show that in his case such expenses have been incurred more frequently. Operating expenses include depreciation but exclude interest charges.

"This new adjustment," Mr. Anderson said, "will, I am confident, carry out the intent and spirit of the Congressional directive that this office give due consideration to landlords who own controlled housing accommodations that are operating at a loss."

2. Hardship Adjustments

The second major change in the handling of adjustments is a revision and streamlining of the "Hardship" provision of the Rent Regulations (Section 5(a) (12)).

In the past, the hardship provision stated that any landlord whose net income had decreased because of increased operating costs for the current year as compared with a prior base period could receive an adjustment. The landlord was required to produce records in support of his claim of increased operating costs. Many landlords—especially small, non-professional landlords—did not keep records and therefore could not qualify for an adjustment.

The change remedies that situation by permitting a landlord owning four or less rental units to seek an adjustment on items for which records are available even though the landlord does not keep them. Such a landlord may file a "short form" petition where he has had a decrease in net income from his rental units because of increased costs for taxes, fuel, utilities, and insurance.

Sea Captain 82 Years Old Is One of Few Veterans Alive

Staten Island, N. Y.—(P)—Eighty-two-year-old Capt. Charles Chase sits and watches with watery blue eyes the sea that first called him at the age of 12.

But the sea calls him no more. He gave it his life and his daughter and he's through with it now forever.

Capt. Chase, a man who knew the science of putting canvas against the wind, was crowded out by men who had learned the science of engines and turning propellers.

"I never had any use for steam—and I still don't," he said stubbornly.

Few veterans of the era of sail are still alive. There are only two—Captain Chase and George O'Neill, 91—among the 400 retired mariners living at the "Sailors' Snug Harbor" here, a home for old salts.

"The others aren't sailors—they're just poor old crippled hypocrites," said Capt. Chase. He thinks neither the seamen nor the ships of today measure up to those in the days of the clippers.

He ran away himself from his Maine home at 12 to work under sail. He was in the Pacific Island trade.

"I loved sail and I guess I stayed with it too long," he said. "When I turned from sail to steam it was too late. I never did get to understand steam."

Capt. Chase spends his time now carving models of the graceful ships with crowding sails in which he spent his life.

"I remember there used to be three to five ships leave San Francisco every day," he said. "They were small ships—only about 160 feet long. We used to have two to three hundred pigs and maybe half a dozen mules on deck. About the third day the deck would be covered with flies, and the passengers'd begin to complain."

"The only way we could get rid of the flies was to stand to against the wind. That'd blow most of 'em off."

"I'd like to see sail come back. But I know it never will." Capt. Chase made money sea-faring and lost it later through bad investments. He said he had only one regret in his life.

"We were coming home from China once," he said. "I had my wife and baby daughter, Maude, aboard. The baby was only 2½ years old. In those times whole families was born and raised aboard ship."

"We'd run through a storm. O those cold nor west winds a-blowin' down! When it calmed, my little daughter came toddling out on deck. I picked her up and hugged her to me, forgettin' my wet ol'skins."

"I couple hours later my wife came up and said the baby I'd caught cold. I went below. My baby was terribly sick. She died that night of pneumonia."

The next day he gave his daughter to the sea.

"All the years since then I been wondering whether it was my fault she caught cold," said the captain.

Business In District Hits Record High

General business in the Oil City-Bradford-Warren industrial area during May made a new high for the month. This was indicated in the monthly business survey of the Pennsylvania State college which was released last night.

Based on bank deposits, factory payrolls and industrial power sales and using 1935-1939 as 100, the index of business stood at 248, a gain of five per cent over a year ago.

From April to May, the index fell three per cent with a majority of items showing a loss at that time. New records for the month were made for postal receipts, industrial power sales, telephones and factory payrolls.

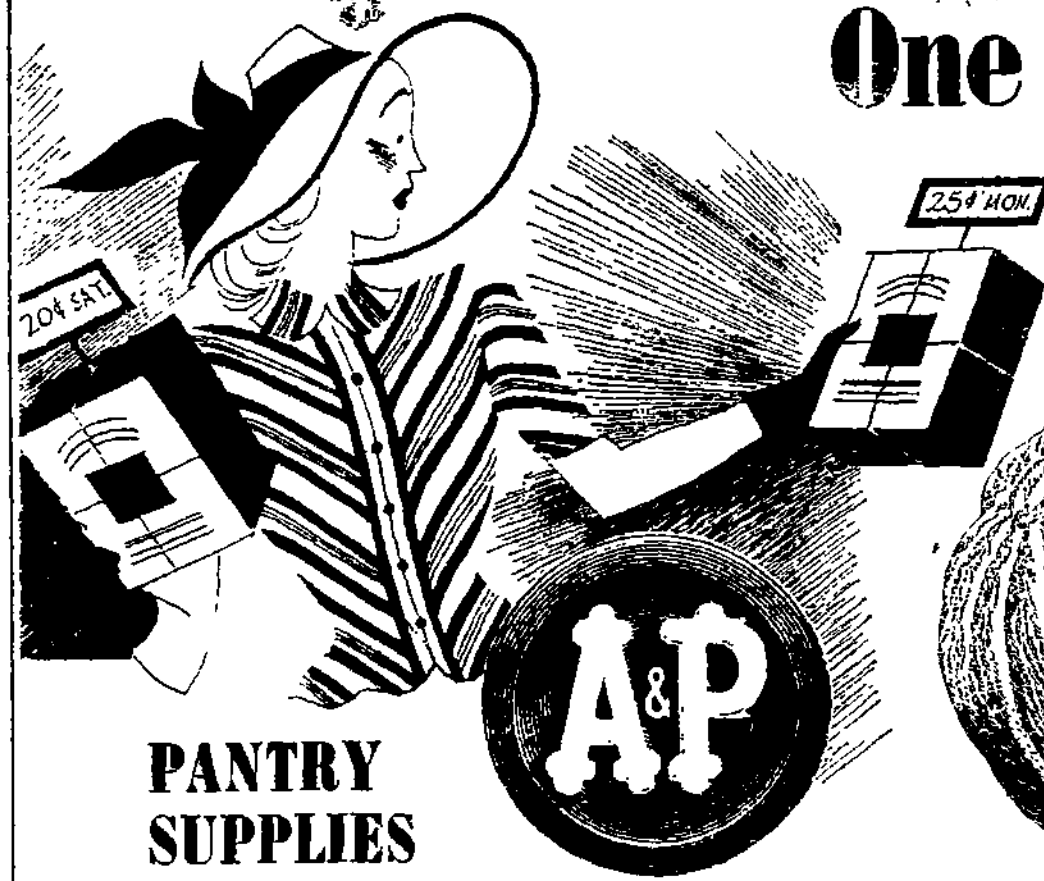

New car and truck sales were the best since 1941. Employee hours were level with 1947. Losses from a year ago included bank deposits and factory employment.

The following are the May statistics for Oil City, compared to those of one year ago: Bank deposits six per cent decrease; factory employment, five counties, two per cent decrease; factory payrolls, five counties, 13 per cent increase; industrial power sales, nine per cent increase; new car and truck sales, count, five per cent increase; postal receipts, eight per cent increase; telephones in service at the end of the month, 10 per cent increase.

The cost of living, which showed a declining tendency in the early months of the year, sharply reversed itself in April—latest data available—and reached the highest point on record for that month. Food costs, which reached a new peak in April were largely responsible, according to the survey.

Leading industrial areas showed the following per centages of increase over a year ago: Allentown, 38; Altoona, 10; Bethlehem, 17; Easton, 16; Erie, 10; Harrisburg, 9; Johnstown, 9; Lancaster, 13; New Castle, 10; Oil City, 5; Philadelphia, 8; Chester, 16; Pittsburgh, 7; Reading, 9; Sharon, 5; Scranton, 3; Wilkes-Barre, 1; Williamsport, 8; and York, 7.

Experience In Warehouse Of Misery Is Cited By Hal Boyle

New York — (P) — A lady I know works in a warehouse of raw misery.

It is one of the vast hospitals built by the city to filter its ill and misfit.

She told me of one case in which she tried to help write a happy ending:

One patient was a small elderly man, grateful for her kindness. He was ill and had been picked up in an intoxicated condition, but she soon was convinced he wasn't a true alcoholic.

One day he told her his story:

"Many years ago my wife died," he said. "We had four children. I had hard luck and couldn't take care of them. I just didn't have the money. I put them in a religious institution—and then well, I guess I just went to pieces. I faded out of the picture."

The old man left the hospital shortly afterward. A few days later the lady noticed his name again on a roster of new mental patients. But the age was much younger.

Curious, she went to see the patient. He was in his twenties.

bu. bore such a strong resemblance to the older man that she was certain immediately he was a son.

She tried to talk to him, but his mind was deep behind the velvet curtain that cloaks the schizophrenic from reality. She checked his record and found that a sister was listed as his closest relative.

Excited at the possibility of reuniting the family, she got in touch with the sister.

Diplomatically she brought up the possibility of arranging a meeting with the father.

"What is he like—my father?" the daughter asked. "I don't remember him. As a girl in the orphan's home I use to wonder about him."

My friend told her that he was old and tired, that he had seemed to her a kindly man, and that his long-ago desertion still preyed on his mind.

The daughter thought it over. Then she said:

"I guess I don't want to see him now. It's too late. The other two children are gone. My brother and I are the only ones left, and I have to worry about him."

And she said bitterly:

"We've been orphans so long we might as well stay that way."

I asked the lady if the daughter had inquired her father's address.

"No."

"Aren't you going to get in touch with the old man and let him know what you found?"

"Have I any right to?" said the lady. "Would you?"

Suggestions For Halting Late Blight

John T. Smith, assistant Warren county farm agent, makes the following announcement which is of considerable interest to potato and tomato growers in this section:

Potato and tomato late blight has been round in Pennsylvania this year, and with the warm wet weather the spread can be very rapid, because this is ideal weather conditions for blight. The control measures are as follows:

For potatoes—8 pounds of bluestone, 4 pounds of hydrated spray lime in 100 gallons of water. For tomatoes—6 pounds of bluestone, 3 pounds of hydrated spray lime in 100 gallons of water. Both these mixtures are known as Bordeaux mixtures and I believe they can be obtained at most stores already mixed.

In the case of late blight on tomatoes if you would rather dust than spray you can use a 7% metallic copper dust. These sprays or dust applications should be done at 7 or 10 day intervals.

AP Writer Explains Courses Of Education For Veterans

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington (P) — Uncle Sam is banning courses of training or education for veterans who want them just for the fun of it.

That doesn't mean a ban on anything that is intended to help a veteran make a living.

If you're a veteran it might be a good idea to read this carefully so you'll get an idea of what you can and can't do now on.

Start from the beginning.

Under the GI bill of rights, veterans—at government expense—have been able to take all kinds of courses and training.

They include not only college educations but things like dancing, photography, glider-flying, pilot-training, bartending, personality development, banjo playing, singing, public speaking.

Some of the courses pretty clearly have been for fun or some other reason not connected with making a living.

About 11 months ago the U. S. budget bureau started an investigation of "vocational" training courses.

(An "vocational" training course is one not essential to a veteran's job goal.)

The bureau made a report which said in effect, that some schools were offering courses purely for "recreational, social or leisure time pursuits."

The bureau made its report to President Truman. And in his budget message to congress last January, Mr. Truman said that such training was costing the taxpayers a lot of money.

He asked congress to re-examine the "basic purposes" of the GI bill of rights and make what changes it thought should be made.

Congress made some changes to this extent:

It said the veterans administration after June 30, 1948, should not pay for any GI training which the V. A. decides is avocational or recreational.

(Veterans who enrolled for such courses before June 30 can finish them, but no new ones can be undertaken.)

But the problem is: What's avocational or recreational?

Labor Unrest In Italy Is Spreading

Rome, July 8 (P) — About 700,000 metal-industry workers laid down their tools at noon today to back Italian labor's demands for more pay.

Their half-day strike was the latest in a series planned by the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor (CGIL). The strikes aim to force industry to give skilled workers wage rises proportionate to those already won for unskilled.

Today's walk-out came a few hours after police beat squads broke tear gas bombs, while coping with labor unrest in Milan.

Tomorrow employees of the glass, ceramic and machine industries will have their turn to strike. Officials of the CGIL, which claims 6,000,000 members, say the individual strikes will involve at least 3,000,000 workers. They announced today that if these strikes fail to bring results, organized labor will be called on next week in a nationwide strike.

Falbriski - Fiscus Nuptials Read In Clarendon Church

St. Clara's church in Clarendon was the scene of a beautiful formal wedding on Thursday evening, June 24, at seven o'clock, when Father M. J. Macken performed the double ring ceremony which united in marriage Mary Louise Fiscus, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Fiscus, 22 Weaver street, Clarendon, and Leonard L. Falbriski, son of Mrs. Pauline Falbriski, 14 Main street, Clarendon.

White and pink peonies, delphinium, mock orange blossoms and fern were used in an attractive altar arrangement. Miss Janina Swartz played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Julia Glasser, Warren, who sang "Ave Maria," "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother, and "Mother, At Your Feet Is Kneeling."

The bride chose a gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with full length train. The fitted bodice, with tunic effect of rose point lace, fastened in the back with tiny satin-covered buttons, and was styled with sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves, tapering to points over the hands. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was edged with wide lace and fell from a tara of orange blossoms and pearls, and her bouquet of white rosebuds was showered with stephanotis and white satin streamers. Her three-strand pearl necklace, with matching earrings, was the bridegroom's gift.

Her niece and maid of honor, Miss Margaret Ennis, Jamestown, N. Y., wore a colonial style gown of pink marquisette, fashioned with off-the-shoulder neckline and a hooped skirt gathered with rosebuds to reveal a ruffled petticoat. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds and had a matching tara of net and roses. Mrs. Julia Glasser, sister of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid. Her gown, styled like the other attendant, was in Nile green and her arm bouquet of yellow rosebuds matched a tara of net and roses.

Louis Glasser, Warren, was best man, with Bernard Falber, Robert Thomas and Gusti Arrigo as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a light blue frock and Mrs. Falbriski wore salmon pink, each with white accessories and yellow rosebud corsage.

A lawn reception followed at the bride's home. Table appointments were in crystal with white candles, and a miniature bridal couple topping the three-tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Clayton Simpson, Mrs. Dean Bullock, Mrs. Verda Yagge, Mrs. Madelyn Dorsey and Miss Eva Keefe presided. Bouquets of mixed peonies and mock orange blossoms were used in additional decoration.

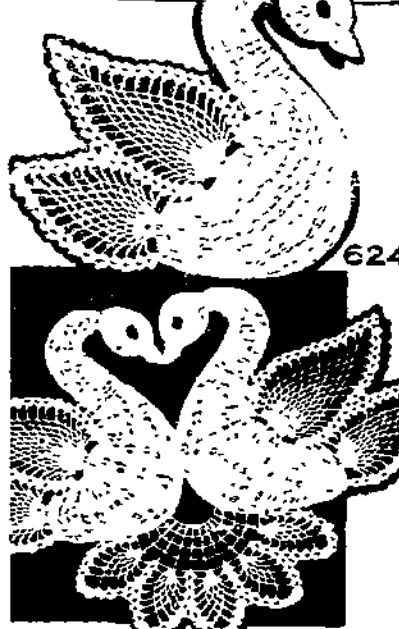

For travel, the bride chose a rose ensemble, with white accessories and white rose corsage. Upon their return from a wedding trip to Washington and the east coast, the couple will live in Clarendon.

Mrs. Falbriski is a graduate of Holy Cross High School in Santa Cruz, Calif., and is employed by the New Process Company.

Mr. Falbriski, alumnus of Warren High School, is an accountant for the Struthers-Wells Corporation.

Pre-nuptial affairs were tendered the bride by Mrs. Verda Yagge, Mrs. Madelyn Dorsey and Miss Eva Keefe; Mrs. Julia Glasser and Mrs. Pauline Falbriski; Mrs. Robert Bullock, Mrs. Clayton Simpson and Mrs. Dean Bullock.

Pretty Nuptials at Bethel Church For Mercedes Anderegg-Franklin Hagberg

Mercedes A. Hagberg, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Anderegg, 18 Schanz street, became the bride of Franklin Gustav Hagberg, Sugar Grove, Friday, July 2, in a delightful afternoon wedding in the sanctuary of Bethel Evangelical United Brethren church. Mr. Hagberg is the third son of Rev. and Mrs. Levi Hagberg, missionaries of the church in LaVilla, Texas.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Hagberg, with Rev. Roland H. Eggleston, pastor of Bethel church, assisting. A low hedge of ferns and pink hibiscus framing the altar was backed by attractive arrangements of regal lilies, delphinium and nigella, and family pews were adorned with sprays of ranunculus and white carnations. Preceding the ceremony appropriate music was played by Miss Ellnor Swanson, who also accompanied the soloist, Harold Landin, of Sugar Grove. Mr. Landin sang "O Promise Me" and the prayer-hymn, "Together."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of white organza over satin made in 19th century style, with wide ruffle edging the deep yoke and waistline. The gown was fashioned with fitted bodice and long, pointed sleeves closing with tiny buttons of satin and organza. Her bouffant skirt ended in a brief train, and her fingertip veil of illusion net was held in place by a bonnet effect of lace and orange blossoms. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses with white satin streamers.

A similar bouquet of yellow roses tied with yellow ribbons was carried by Miss Joyce Anderegg, her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. Her gown of lavender tulle was styled like the bride's, with the yoke ruffle forming cap sleeves. With it she wore a half-bonnet of the same material with a spray of yellow flowers at the back.

The bride's mother wore a gray mesh jersey with black and white accessories, her hat matching the roses in her American beauty corsage. Mrs. Hagberg wore red roses with a French blue linen and lace dress, and brown and white accessories.

Frederick Hagberg, LaVilla, Tex., served as best man for his brother. The following served as ushers: John Anderegg, the bride's brother; of Warren; Max M. Hay, Sugar Grove; Donald and Richard Hagberg, Scandia, cousins of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 100 guests was held in the church parlors. The bride's table, decorated in silver and white, was centered with a three-tiered, heart-shaped cake made by Mrs. Arthur Cobb, family friend. The cake was topped by a nosegay of white flowers and white streamers, and was wreathed in white blossoms. Guests were served from a buffet table, having as its centerpiece a miniature rose arbor with figures dressed in replicas of gowns worn by the bridal party. Aides were the bridegroom's sister, Esther Hagberg; his cousin, Betty Esther Olson; Enid Allen, Mrs. Ted Kner, Mrs. Robert Dickinson and Caryl Burgeson, all classmates of the bride.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hill, Syracuse, N. Y.; Esther Hagberg, Rochester, N. Y.; Mrs. Franklin Mesmer, Grand Island, N. Y.; Dorothea Herlan, Mrs. Sebastian Gangi, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Ted Kner, Mayville, N. Y.; Mrs. Robert Dickinson, Enid Allen, Betty Bennett, Caryl Burgeson, Gust Hagberg, Annaleda Hagberg, Mrs. Carl Hagberg and daughter, Tracey, Jamestown, N. Y.; Rev. and Mrs. Levi Hagberg, Fred Hagberg, LaVilla, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. David Olson, Betty Esther Olson, Ridgway; and others from North Warren, Sugar Grove, Chancellors Valley and Scandia.

Later, the couple left for a trip through the Adirondack Mountains to be at home after July 12 at 212½ Madison avenue. For traveling, Mrs. Hagberg wore a two-piece dress of white butch-er linen with eyelet cap sleeves and peplum, black and white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bride graduated from Sugar Grove High School in 1944, from the Buffalo General Hospital

"Seeds of Beauty" Is Theme For 42nd Annual Conservatory Commencement

An audience that filled the concert hall to capacity and overflowed into the reception room and studios assembled in the Warren Conservatory of Music last evening for the 42nd annual commencement exercises.

The auditorium was beautifully decorated with large baskets of red roses, gladioli and delphinium to provide a suitable setting for the program of voice and piano selections presented by the graduates.

The Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge, rector of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church, delivered the commencement address. In his opening remarks, Mr. Rutledge paid tribute to Dr. and Mrs. LeRoy B. Campbell for their part in placing the Conservatory at the top of Warren's cultural institutions and development of the high esteem in which it is held, not only in Warren but in surrounding communities.

He pointed out that each faculty member is "sowing seeds of beauty among the students" and challenged members of the graduating class to do likewise, so that "they may blossom forth in full flower in the next generation." He stressed to the class the fact that everything they receive in daily life is the result of toil, sweat and tears of others who have sowed the seeds of beauty. The houses they live in, the schools they attend, the music they play, the songs they sing—all have been handed to them by someone. In concluding, he asked God's richest blessing upon each member of the 42nd annual graduating class.

Program numbers for the evening, vocal and piano, were presented by the following graduates: Dorothy Bohren, with Adelaide Swanson at the second piano; Beverly Adams, Mrs. Chatmon, Jane Hovey, Nonnie Holt Graustadt with Ruth Titchner at the second piano; Jane Hovey as pianist with Lillian Larsen at the second piano; Gladys Jensen, Jane McDowell, Mary Mangus, Beverly McIntyre with Lillian Swanson playing orchestral parts, Joann Yagge.

The accompanists, all faculty members, were Miss Larsen, Mrs. Adelaide and Miss Lillian Swanson, with Walter Whaley playing for Gladys Jensen.

In presenting diplomas to the class members, Dr. Campbell spoke briefly in a humorous vein that delighted the audience and developed a more serious thought in recognition of the work done by the graduates.

School of Nursing in 1947, and is now a staff nurse at Warren State Hospital.

Mr. Hagberg served two years with the U. S. Army after graduating from Johnsonburg High School in 1944. He is presently employed by the Marlin-Rockwell Corporation, Jamestown, and will enter North Park College in Chicago this fall.

Mrs. Rowena Mathis, Mrs. Louis Mathis, Mrs. Marshall Mathis and Mrs. Charles Mathis entertained at the Charles Mathis home with a variety shower for the bride. Former classmates at the Buffalo hospital gave a shower in her honor at the home of Miss Caryl Burgeson, Jamestown, and the Misses Irene Camoda and Helen Schrabit were hostesses to staff nurses of Warren State Hospital for a personal shower. Miss Joyce Anderegg gave a party following the rehearsal on Thursday evening.

Bert Stovers Have 50th Anniversary

A family reunion, with 12 relatives and friends attending, marked the golden wedding anniversary celebration over the Independence Day weekend for Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stover, of Stoneham.

The Stovers were married in Jamestown, N. Y., on July 5, 1898, and have seven daughters and four sons, all of whom are living.

They are Mrs. Nellie Patchen, of Warren; Mrs. Deltha Galloway, of Bovard, N. C.; Herbert, of Warren; Clifford, of Imperial; Newman, of Port Morris, N. J.; Ronald, of Warren; Mrs. Gladys Atkinson, of Tarentum; Mrs. Ruby Staples, of Bovard, N. C.; Mrs. Inez Olson, of Warren; Mrs. Bonnie Mattay, of Jamestown, N. Y.; and Mrs. Juanita Spicer, of Barnes. Mrs. Patchen, who is visiting her daughter in California, was the only one of the children unable to be present for the celebration.

Mr. Stover was a shovel and crane operator for many years, and at present is a watchman at the Metzger-Wright store in Warren.

Television Gives Politicians Problem Not Yet Encountered

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington—(AP)—Television should teach the politicians a lesson but it will take them time to earn it.
That's why the Democratic convention in Philadelphia next week will be pretty much like the Republican contention there two weeks ago.

There'll be the same long speeches, the same hoopla demonstrations intended to show the great joy of the delegates, or something.
And the endless hours of drag
by, hours that could be packed with action to get the convention over and done with.

Television gives the politicians a problem they never had before.
Until television came, whatever they did was seen only by a few thousand of themselves, a sort of in-the-family affair.

Now the whole nation will be looking at their every word and gesture on an ice-cold television screen that makes the most rosy-cheeked politician look gray.

Here's an example of what's meant.

When a bullthorated orator shouts for 15 or 30 minutes—rolling his eyes, waving his arms, rocking and weaving and brushing back the hair that's fallen in his eyes—no may affect the delegates because he's rear them, in the flesh.

But that same speaker—on the gray glass of television, yelling at a farmer 2,000 miles away—

may seem like a ghostly windbag without sense or dignity.

The Republican convention started on Monday and ended on Friday. It could have been ended in two days or so, instead of five.
The Democratic convention will start on Monday—July 12—and probably end on Friday. It, too, could be wrapped up in a couple of days. For example.

Instead of starting at 9 a. m.,
the Republican convention got under way around noon.
After a couple of hours of speeches and business the first three days, it recessed until 9 p.
m. for more speeches, instead of going right on.

In the past delegates have gone to conventions reconciled to sweating it out in a jam-packed hall four or five days.

This was all right for them, since they were the ones enduring it and they knew they were trapped when they started.

And nobody except themselves and their friends and relatives in the galleries, saw what was happening or took part in it.

Soon the whole nation can sit in its living room and watch the performance on a television screen, passing judgment.

Everybody reads the Times-Mirror.

Humans Are Blamed For 90 Per Cent of Forest Fires

By ROWLAND EVANS, JR.
AP Newsfeature Writer

Washington—Millions of fertile forest acres in the United States will be charred wastelands next winter. The forest fire season is getting started, and nothing will stop it it comes every year at this time and lasts until fall. During 1943 (most recent year covered by
U. S. forest service reports) 172,-
000 forest fires destroyed 20,691,-
000 wooded areas containing $32,- 694,000 worth of timber and property.

It probably will be about the same picture this year, say forest service experts. About 640,000,000 acres of U. S. land is forest-covered.
Only 72 per cent of it is protected by federal, state and local fire-protection wardens. The rest (mostly in the south) is unguarded.
Lack of state and federal funds is the reason. Eighty-seven per cent of all fire-destroyed acreage in 1946 was in these unguarded areas.

In our 132 national forests we have 3,200 lookout towers. Twelve hundred year-round and 7,000 seasonal fireguards men these vantage points and the vast forest areas they overlook during spring, summer and fall. It's the same in national parks and state and privately-controlled forests.

What's the reason for fires starting anyway? The U. S. forest service says that in the country as a whole, 90 per cent of all fires are started by human beings, 10

Communists in control of slav Reds for being "anti-Soviet," ernment, observers say. Alexej

varmints and "greenup" the grass.
Many costly fires start in this fashion, not just in the south but all over the country. But in the great timber lands of the northwest it's estimated that 40 per cent of the fires are born in "dry lightning" storms, especially after spring and summer droughts. The U. S. forest service says California is a potential tinder box: this year because of the bad winter drought.

New England fires often start from camp fires which haven't been put out. Thousands of New England summer tourists to whom a Maine woods is a three-day vacation rather than a valuable storage area of billions of board feet of lumber, have started costly fires
by careless dousing of camp fires and cigarettes.

Once a fire is really on its way it's almost impossible to stop it.

Rivers and other natural fire barriers, as well as heavy rains, are about the best hopes man has.
Firefighters can sometimes control large fires but they can't put them out without nature's help. It takes out without nature's help. A good decades for a burned-out area to become a forest again. A good lumber-producing forest today will be made sterile overnight by a bad fire and may not become lumber-producing again for 100 years.

Inflation Hits These Cities, Foods Hardest

These are the 10 foods and 20 cities hardest hit by soaring prices, according to latest available figures from the Bureau of Labor Statistics. With the 1935-1939 average as 100 or "normal," index numbers show present increase over prewar prices. Onions, now at an index number of 440.9, have risen 407.9 per cent from August, 1939, levels. Figures for Cedar Rapids, Jackson, Knoxville and Wichita use June, 1940, as 100, since data was not collected in those cities in 1939. The least-affected city reported is Columbus, O., with an index number of 193.1, and the least-affected commodity reported is canned peas, 113.5.

Small Game Season Will Be Three Days Shorter Than '47

four-week open season for turkey, ring-neck pheasant, pit and squirrel hunting, three shorter than in 1947, was decided last week by the State Game Commission.

The small game season will open Nov. 1 and continue through Nov. 13, including four Saturdays. Turkey hunting, however, will be restricted to two weeks in 12 counties and banned entirely in 24 others. Last year 11 counties were closed and 10 had short seasons.

Groundhogs also may be hunted the same November period in addition to the regular season fixed law which opened July 1 and closed Sept. 30.

Other seasons set by the Commission at its July meeting include:

Deer—Nov. 29 through Dec. 11, a fair game limited this year anywhere to antlered bucks.

Bear—Nov. 15 through Nov. 20, with individual sportsmen limited to one bruin, a year or more old, in the season and hunting parties to two.

Grouse—A one week season, Nov. 1 through Nov. 6, with the design of increasing the supply. Bobwhite, quail and Hungarian partridges—Nov. 1 through Nov. 13, a reduction of two weeks to give the bobwhites a chance to re-establish themselves.

The Commission explained its broader restrictions on wild turkey hunting are designed to give the game in bear territory "a sporting chance."

Counties with the short season will be Cameron, Clearfield, Clinton, Elk, Jefferson, Lycoming, McKean, Potter, Snyder, Sullivan, Tioga and Union. Hunting turkeys is banned entirely in Adams, Bradford, Carbon, Clarion, Columbia,

Mulches Save Work and Keep Top Soil Porous

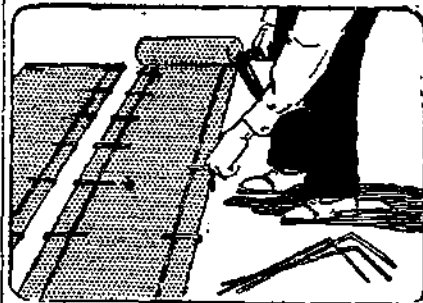

Mulches should be applied to tomato plants while the soil is well applied with moisture. They will prevent the soil from drying out, then hard weather arrives.

Tomatoes require a regular supply of water. Unlike many vegetables, it does not benefit from alternate drying out and soaking. When they lack water, the disease called blossom-end rot develops, a black decayed spot opposite the stem. When they are baked after being too dry, cracking of the fruit is likely.

By covering the soil about them with lawn clippings, straw, hay, leaves, peat moss or manure, weeds in the soil are kept down and moisture kept in the soil. Thorough watering when rains are few will still be necessary. Poor drainage may have the same effect as a drought, if the soil is continually so wet as to affect the root growth, and prevent the plant from taking the water it needs.

Lawn clippings, which are the most convenient mulch material with most moisture, should not be applied when, but dried out first without filling them up, since they heat and decay with a bad odor when piled. It is best to apply a thin layer of clippings and work it into the soil to a depth of six inches, which is sufficient to keep down weeds.

After tomatoes have begun to bear

Old newspapers, fastened down with wire staples, make a good mulch. They do not need so much water as before.

Many vegetables can be mulched with good effect on the crop, and a reduction in the work of cultivating and frequency of watering. Cucumbers, melons and squash will benefit especially. A mulch placed on the ground beneath vines, as well as tomatoes, which are not trained to supports, but lie on the ground, will keep the fruits cleaner, and protect them from decay.

Tomatoes are susceptible to two diseases, which careless handling may spread. Mosaic disease may be spread by using a knife in pruning, and a disease which persists in tobacco after it is cured, may be transmitted to tomato plants handled by careless smokers, who fail to wash their hands.

Miners Strike in Nation's 'Captive' Pits

U. S. Steel miners Howard Matthews, left, and James Greer dig weeds in their gardens in Pittsburgh, Pa., after 40,000 miners in the nation's "captive" coal mines—those owned and operated by steel companies—failed to report to work following a 10-day vacation. More than 30,000 United Mine Workers employed by commercial operators joined them in a "sympathy" walkout. "Captive" miners want a union shop provision incorporated into their 1948 contract.

Cumberland, Fayette, Forest, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Monroe, Montour, Northampton, Northumberland, Pike, Schuylkill, Susquehanna, Venango, Warren, Westmoreland, Wyoming and York; and that part of Somerset north of the Turnpike.

The Commission continued the wintertime season for hunting hares during the Christmas and New Year holidays from Dec. 20 through Jan. 1.

Also opened at the same time were the hunting and trapping seasons for raccoon. Both start Nov. 1 with a daily hunting bag of five. The season limit is 30 both for hunters and trappers.

Red squirrels may be hunted in unlimited numbers from Nov. 1 through Sept. 30, 1949, with grackles unprotected in the same period. The bag limit for grouse, quail, partridges, wild turkeys, pheasants, rabbits, squirrels and hares remain unchanged from last year. They are two grouse a day and six a season; four quail a day and 12 a season; two partridges a day and eight a season; one turkey a season; pheasants, males only, two a day and eight a season; rabbits, four a day and 20 a season; squirrels, gray, black and fox combined, six a day and 24 a season; and hares, two a day and six a season.

Seasons for furbearers included: Minks, otters and muskrats, unlimited, Dec. 1-Jan. 1; skunks, unlimited, Nov. 1-Feb. 1; beavers, two a season, Feb. 15-March 1, with the counties of Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Cambria, Clarion, Crawford, Elk, Erie, Fayette, Forest, Greene, Indiana, Lawrence, McKean, Mercer, Potter, Somerset, Venango, Warren, Washington and Westmoreland closed.

Opossums are unprotected from Oct. 1 through Sept. 30, 1949.

The Commission said it found considerable sentiment for an antlerless deer season in some counties but decided "it would be wise to wait until next year before again establishing such a season."

It also said the muskrat season was limited to one month's trapping instead of two because of the furbearers' scarcity in many areas. The mink and otter seasons were shortened likewise to reduce the possibility of illegal muskrat trapping.

The seasons for waterfowl, shorebird, woodcock and dove are fixed by the Federal government and will be announced by the Commission as soon as known.

New Member On Staff Of Crude Society

Oil City—B. E. Youkers of San Francisco, Calif., a native of Knox, has joined the staff of the Pennsylvania Grade Crude Oil Association as a special field service representative assigned to the mid-western area, according to an announcement by W. C. Wenzel, association executive manager.

From headquarters in Chicago, Mr. Youkers will cover Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Nebraska and possibly other states.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Youkers of Knox, where his father has been a Pennsylvania grade crude oil producer for 40 years, Mr. Youkers was graduated from Knox High School in 1937.

B. E. Youkers

He enlisted in the Army Air Force at Langley Field, Va., in 1939, being graduated the following year from airplane and engine school at Chanute Field, Ill. In 1941 he was assigned to Puerto Rico, then being transferred by the United States and completed training in the Norden bombsight maintenance school there. He was ordered back to the United States in 1943 and received his honorable discharge at Portland, Ore., in September 1945 as flight chief and technical sergeant.

He was employed by Tide Water Associated Oil Company, San Francisco, from 1945 to 1947 as motor check engineer, handling sales and demonstrations of oil and gasoline. More recently he has been regional manager for Clayton Manufacturing Company of El Monte, Calif., manufacturers of dynamometers.

Mr. Youkers has maintained his interest in aviation and has a pilot's license. He is 27 years old and single.

SHEER TRAVEL MAGIC

THIS is the Buick America's car buyers are buzzing about. This is the one with travel magic flowing all through it.

This is the ROADMASTER with Dynaflo Drive*—where Main Street's dense traffic, the inviting open road and the long, stretching hills are bossed with equal ease by a toe-touch.

Here you let your left foot idle comfortably wherever you wish—there's no clutch pedal to push, ever.

Here your mind's free completely of remembering when to shift—no gears ever shift anywhere in the car.

Here, you glide over ground and grades in swift and utter smoothness as constant and unbroken as Niagara's flow.

For here you have the only passenger car in America where liquid replaces both the usual clutch and the low-second-high gear sequence of conventional transmissions.

Here you sit in blissful ease while the power plant itself meets and masters the thousand and one situations that come up in travel.

Gentle grades, steep hills, long straightaways, stop streets—once your lever's set, you simply step on the gas—and take them all in liquid-smooth luxury!

Does all this sound fabulous? It is.

So fabulous that folks are signing up in droves for the '48 fashion plate with this new-wonder drive.

So to take command of this traveler-touched-with-magic, come see us quickly and get your order in.

We'll take it in sequence whether or not you have a car to trade.

BUICK alone has all these features

- * DYNAFLO DRIVE (Optional, Roadmaster Series)
- * TAPER-THRU STYLING (Super and Roadmaster)

What's Different About DYNAFLO DRIVE?

To an efficient new pump (left above), Buick engineers have added a new turbine (right) and an ingenious new supercharging assembly (in head) which produce a torque-bonding action in starting and accelerating. The result is the first device on any American passenger car which employs liquid to fill the function of both the clutch and the usual low, second and high gears. The clutch pedal is eliminated and a simple control gives you manual selection of power ranges and direction.

*Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster models only.

Penn Furnace Building A New Type Fire Truck For Use In Rural Communities

A pet idea which has simmered in the head of Joseph H. DeFrees, vice president of the Pennsylvania Furnace and Iron Company, for a long period of time has finally borne results with the construction of a new type of fire truck which will fill a long felt need on the part of rural community fire departments.

The equipment has been on the drawing board for many months. The local concern has been building conventional water tank trucks for several years and this spring made the decision to go into a more specialized piece of equipment for communities which lack a hydrant system or a satisfactory water supply.

A tank, which was especially designed in the shape of a U cross-section, and carries about 1000 gallons of water, has been mounted on a Ford chassis. The shape of the tank provides an extremely low center of gravity and allows partial loads to be carried without undue shifting of weight and consequent interference with the roadability of the vehicle. In addition, the hollow top part of the U tank provides space for carrying hose and other equipment within the body of the truck.

The tank is of a special nickel and copper alloy for great strength and high resistance to corrosion. It is so mounted on the chassis as to become an integral part of the vehicle and to add strength to the whole frame.

A U-shaped back platform is another feature in that it gives protection from three sides to firemen riding there, and minimizes the danger of injury as a result of a fall from the vehicle while on the way to a blaze. Chrome handrails and trim complete the decoration.

An application for patent has been filed by the Pennsylvania Furnace and Iron Company for the use of this design in its equipment.

The model which has been built at the plant on Pine street carries 150 feet of one-inch booster hose, approximately 1000 feet of one and one-half inch hose and three 10-foot lengths of suction hose. One 24-foot aluminum extension ladder and one 12-foot roof ladder are also carried.

The pump compartment contains a special rotary pump which is particularly adapted to fire equipment in that it will handle abrasive materials without damage to the pump and is self-priming. It delivers 90 gallons per minute at 125 pounds pressure. A two and one-half inch suction line from the outside will replenish the tank supply, or provide water from an outside source.

In addition, the pump compartment has sufficient space to carry several cans of foam together with a special foam nozzle.

The use of foam in conjunction with this equipment was very satisfactorily demonstrated at the recent Old Home Week in Youngstown when Doug Kropf, former fire chief of Warren, walked into and extinguished a large oil fire burning in a pit especially constructed for that purpose. In addition, by the use of the fog nozzle, which is also a part of the equipment, Mr. Kropf quickly extinguished a fire in a small wooden building which had been loaded with old tires and oil, creating an extremely hot fire.

Mr. DeFrees acknowledges with thanks the encouragement and help rendered by Mr. Kropf as well as Scott Stuart, fire chief of Sugar Grove, where the equipment would be of great aid, and from Jack Martin, assistant fire chief of Jamestown, N. Y.

When displayed at the recent eastern fire chiefs conference in Jamestown, the equipment attracted a great deal of favorable comment from department officials throughout the entire section.

Mr. DeFrees said that plans for full scale production of the apparatus are not yet complete.

The Times-Mirror feels that the forward looking officials of the local company have taken a constructive step in supplying the city with a new industry.

MINOR ACCIDENTS

Two minor accidents were reported to city police yesterday, one occurring at Pennsylvania avenue and Liberty street and the other in the 1900 block of Pennsylvania avenue, east. Damage was slight in both collisions, and the parties adjusted their own differences.

FIRE CALL

The first fire call in several days came this morning at 7:34 o'clock from Third and Liberty streets when a short circuited wire in a car belonging to L. M. Schaffer, of Pleasant township, started to burn. Firemen disconnected one of the battery terminals and returned to stations in about fifteen minutes. Damage was estimated at approximately $10.

Negotiations are under way by representatives of Kathryn Kuhlman, Franklin evangelist, for purchase of the Sugar Creek roller skating pavilion for services conducted by her. Since by court order, she has been prevented from using the Franklin Gospel Tabernacle she has been conducting meetings in the Sugar Creek building. The deal is expected to be consummated the coming week.

BAN ON CARNIVALS

Titusville Herald: The ban set by former Mayor Peter J. Hoening before the war against carnivals has been relaxed conditionally by Mayor C. C. Hampton to permit the Bruce Shorts Post, V. F. W., to bring a carnival here for their celebration of the week of August 23-28 inclusive. Mayor Hoening's ban was made because of the generally low moral tone of carnivals coming here and not specifically because of the amount of money they took from the town, although a successful carnival generally does a very profitable business. Mayor Hampton told Council Tuesday night that he would relax the rule for the V. F. W. if that organization would co-operate with the city police in maintaining order and keeping the show clean.

EMERGENCY CASES

Among emergency cases treated at Warren General Hospital yesterday were Charles Newman, 13, of Sheffield, who fell over a log while fishing and broke his right wrist; Dennis McNally, 7, 1308 Pennsylvania avenue, east, who received a cut on his forehead when he fell on a rock; George McKendry, Butler RD 1, employed by

Please take an extra look at your next electric service bill. It will have a NEW DISCOUNT DATE

So that my fellow employees can serve you more efficiently my wages (your electric service bill) now come due on twenty-one different discount days in the month instead of only twelve as in the past.

This may mean that your new discount date will be moved ahead—or be moved back—and it may cause you some inconvenience—but just keep in mind that after your next service bill, the date will remain the same.

So look for that new discount date—and in the meantime I'll be workin' for you, washing, ironing, keeping food fresh and good during those hot days ahead — and doing many, many other household tasks.

CHAPTER 30

HILDED spent that Saturday afternoon with Lucien and Jimmy. She could not have spent it alone, waiting for the wire. Randy had promised to send as soon as the operation was over. She must spend it as if she were not waiting—otherwise she could not have got through that time at all.

When she and Lucien were alone—Hildred told him that she would marry him.

"There's something I want you to do for me," she said.

"You know, without naming it, that I will gladly grant any request of yours, my sweet." He looked up long enough to flash her a smile.

"It's about Jimmy. I am sure I have found the best—the right solution." She decided to make the telling seem to be her decision, rather than explain that Robin had come to her first. "You know I feel that he should be adopted, Lucien, legally, so that his whole future will be the same. Well," she drew a long breath—"I talked with Robin—you know how fond he and Ellen are of the boy—and it seems they both had already said that idea—that they would like to adopt him."

"You believe that would be better for the boy than for him to stay on with me?"

"I believe so." Her look did not waver. "In fact, I believe it so much that, well, I am willing to marry you, Lucien, if you will agree—and help make it possible."

There! She had said it.

"You mean that?"

"I give you my word," Hildred answered.

"That is good enough for me," Lucien said. He did not come over to her now, as she had supposed he would. He surprised her even more, by adding, "I agree it will be best for Jimmy. Liz and I would raise him between us. He should grow up to be a fine man—her to know that you are the one a sane, normal man—with Robin and Ellen to guide him."

"I am glad you see it that way." She could let out her breath now, slowly. That, then, was settled—and it was a solution to which Randy, also, would agree.

And this made it stranger still that Lucien should speak of him now. "How about that doctor of yours, the one so young, so handsome? You have found him, then, that you did not love him as much as you thought? You do not mind—you will not regret putting him out of your heart—your life forever?"

He had said he did not care if Hildred loved someone else; but she saw that he did. Lucien was only human, after all. She would have to be honest with him, yet she could make it as gentle as possible. "I will put him out of my life and heart," she said, making it a vow unto herself. For she would do that no matter what it might cost her, once she became Lucien's wife. She had not said that she did not love Randy; she would love him always.

Still she could not tell, from Lucien's face, what his thoughts were. But now he did come over to her; he sat down beside her, but he did not take her two hands in his as he usually was wont to do. He did not offer to touch her, though she had just promised to marry him. His dark eyes had that intent look, almost that brooding shadow of tragedy. He said, "I will do my best, my utmost, Hildred, my beloved, to make you happy."

"I know you will." Her eyes returned his look.

"May I tell my mother?" Lucien asked permission now, when before always he had issued a command. "This will make her very happy. She knew, of course, that we were practically betrothed—your wearing the brooch the other night at dinner—but I want now who has confirmed our engagement."

"I don't see any reason why we should not tell her," Hildred agreed.

And then he smiled at her once more; he caught up her hands and pressed them, fiercely, fervently, to his lips.

Afterwards she was to recall that that was their betrothal kiss. Would she ever understand, or know him?

It was Ellen who brought the message. But it was not a telegram. Ellen announced that there was a gentleman to see Miss McNaughten. And before either Hildred or Lucien could ask who it was, Randy stepped into the room.

Hildred's surprise was so great that she could not believe her eyes, or find even a word of greeting. And then, seeing Randy's face, she knew why he was here—why he had come, himself, instead of wiring. It was written in the firm line of his stern lean jaw, the resolute set of his fine mouth; it was in the steadfast regard of his clear gray eyes.

Without thinking, without words, Hildred got up and went to him. Straight into his arms, that opened to receive her as if they had been waiting just for that. She buried her head against his chest; she clung to him, as a child might have, as if he were her strength, her rock, as indeed he was in this moment.

"You know then, Hildy?" His voice was very gentle, very tender for him; one of his hands stroked her fair, bent head; the other arm held her fast, tightly against him. "There is no need for me to tell you."

"Yes . . . I know . . ." Yet, she did not. She knew that her mother was dead. But she could not know it, in its fullest sense of reality—yet, anyway. That would have to come more slowly, as this numbness that seized her, choking all emotion, all thought, gradually drifted away.

Old Trolley Co. Employees Will Picnic

Vivid memories of the days when street cars operated in the Warren area will be re-lived by conductors, motormen and office employees of the old car lines when they hold their second annual reunion Sunday, July 18.

The reunion will be held at the same place as last year, the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. William Duff, a mile from Hemlock. Some 50 of the old-time motormen and conductors and their families and friends from all parts of the country attended the reunion last year, and an even greater attendance is anticipated this year.

Levi Learn of Russell is again in charge of arrangements for the affair. He asks those planning to attend to bring picnic baskets, table service and also card tables. Ice cream and coffee will be furnished by the committee.

Street cars were replaced by buses in the Warren area some 20 years ago.

Lines operated in Warren from the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks on the west side eastward and northward to Glade, the old Irvine-dale park, Conewango avenue, and North Warren. Interurban lines also connected Warren with Jamestown and Sheffield.

The U. S. Naval Supply Depot on Trinidad, British West Indies, maintains its own self-supporting tropical plantation, on which are grown tropical fruits and vegetables for the use of American military personnel on the island.

A recent applicant to enlist in the Navy was a determined young man. Told that he could not qualify because the little finger on his right hand was paralyzed, he had the finger amputated and re-applied. He got in.

They Won't Take No for an Answer

Off to Philadelphia and the Democratic National Convention, the California delegation, headed by James Roosevelt, right, gets a send-off at the Los Angeles railroad station. Several hundred boosters appeared, carrying placards hailing Eisenhower and Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas. Standing next to Roosevelt is his wife.

LOBLAWS Beat the Heat Drinks for Summer Menus

Have you ever tried one of our Ice Cream Mixes? There have been real improvements in the making of these in the past few years so that they are easier to prepare and have a real Ice Cream flavor. You can freeze them in your electric refrigerator at a cost varying from 29c to 35c per quart. That's real saving. Here is a tip - Buy a package of Safe-T Ice Cream Cones. You can get 12 for 25c, make your own Ice Cream Cones and give them to your children any time they want them.

Have you seen the new pin-up lamps in our stores lately? They are ideal for your Summer Cottage or extra room. They will set on a table or can be turned to hang on the wall. Complete with shade, they cost only $1.39. A regular $2.50 value. Many people are buying 2 or 3 for dark corners in their halls. They are quite a value at our price.

ICED Coffee-ICED Tea-Pink Lemonade ICED Fruit Juices-ICED Beverages

Good iced tea or coffee isn't just a happy accident. It's the result of careful making. First is the "Jiffy Way". Make your coffee or tea double strength by using half the amount of water to your usual amount of coffee or tea. Then fill a tall glass to the brim with ice. Finally pour coffee or tea over the ice. Add sugar and cream to your coffee and lemon and sugar to your tea.

The second method is the "Pro-Cooled Way". First make your coffee or tea regular strength. Then cool it in a covered, non-metallic container for not more than three hours. Finally serve in tall glasses with ice.

For the youngsters, serve pink lemonade. Squeeze two cups of lemon juice, 1 cup of sugar, 4 teaspoons of grated lemon peel. For each serving of lemonade, pour 1/2 cup of the lemon juice, 1 cup of sugar, 4 teaspoons of grated lemon peel. For each serving of lemonade, pour 1/2 cup of the lemon juice, 1 cup of sugar, 4 teaspoons of grated lemon peel. Add a few drops of red food coloring. Fill glass to top with cold water and stir. Note: This syrup will keep well for several days when stored in a glass jar or other covered glass container in the refrigerator, or if you prefer use Realemon lemon juice in place of fresh lemons.

Sistie Wedded At Quiet Ceremony

Phoenix, Ariz., July 8—(P)—In a quiet double ring ceremony, Anna Blumenthal, the eldest grandchild of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, became the bride of Van H. Seagraves of Oregon City, Ore., yesterday.

Fifteen years ago the bride was one of the best known and most frequently photographed children in the country. It was at that time, during her grandfather's first term, that she and her brother, Curtis, lived in the White House.

Known familiarly as "Sistie" and "Buzzie," the children made the presidential mansion their home from 1933-35.

Only members of the family and close friends were present at yesterday's ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, John and Anna Roosevelt Boettiger.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, widow of the former president, attended the wedding.

Japs Sentenced To The Gallows

Yokohama, July 8—(P)—Five Japanese today were sentenced to be hanged for the murder of 63 American prisoners.

Forty-eight Americans burned to death in a cell block when the Tokyo military prison burned in an air raid in May, 1945. The other 17 were cut down with swords by the guards as they attempted to escape their burning cells.

The U. S. Eighth Army military commission sentenced to the gallows Prison Warden Toshio Tashiro, chief jailer Masao Koshikawa, and Guards Hatsuaki Kambe, Keiji Kamamoto and Matsushita Okubo.

While all the American prisoners perished in the fire, none of the 500 Japanese military and political prisoners lost their lives.

Rail Labor Issue Still Unsettled

Washington, July 8—(P)—The White House disclosed today that management and labor representatives are holding joint negotiations in the rail labor dispute.

Charles G. Ross, presidential press secretary, told reporters that both sides met for four hours at the White House last night and will renew their talks this afternoon.

Ross would not forecast the possibility of an agreement. He said "wait and see" what develops.

However, a source close to the negotiations said both sides have traded proposals and are submitting these to their full committees for consideration.

This would mean that acceptance or rejection of any proposal would likely come at the afternoon meeting.

BETTER RATINGS FOR BUTLER PRISONERS

Butler, July 8—Prisoners in Butler jail who for some time have been getting only bread and water have been voted more generous rations.

Hereafter, by order of city council, each prisoner will get a cup of coffee and a sandwich every day.

Councilman Charles H. Barnhart had protested the bread and water diet. Even dogs cooped in the city pound are fed and watered said Barnhart.

Police Chief C. J. Miller explained the city allows only $200 a year to feed prisoners. They went on bread and water after council discovered it had spent $85 in one month for jail food.

Miller said he doesn't feel that the jail should be looked on as "a home away from home."

TWO PILOTS KILLED IN CRASH OF PLANE

Greenville, S. C., July 8—(P)—Two pilots died last night in the flaming wreckage of a C-47 plane at the Greenville Air Force base.

The transport crashed and burned seconds after cutting loose two gliders it had been towing on a training mission. The gliders landed safely.

There has been no official announcement of the Jewish position on the truce extension, but the Jewish sources have said the Jews were willing to continue it.

Israeli government sources said they expected the real full-scale war to break out tomorrow.

A dispatch from Jerusalem told of persistent efforts among officers of Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion that the Jews had heavily increased their armament in the Holy City. At the beginning of the truce the Arabs held the old walled city of Jerusalem and the Jews held most of the modern city, although it was the American and French occupation zones already are being merged under this plan.

operations, but these nights were expected to be stepped up.

A British transport pilot reported sighting five Russian Yak fighters in the British Corridor. One of the Soviet fighters "peeled off and flew within a comparatively close vicinity" of the transport, a British headquarters announcement said. The British military government explained it attached "no importance or significance" to the report.

An American C-47 supply plane returning from Berlin to Wiesbaden was reported overdue today, but later Tempelhof air base in Berlin said it had made a safe emergency landing about 24 miles northwest of Hof in the United States zone. Base operations officers said neither plane nor crew was harmed.

There had been earlier reports of a nuisance beam. Last week U. S. authorities began an inquiry in an attempt to determine if Russian broadcasting stations were trying to pull American pilots off their course. Pilots wandering out of the corridor could be accused by the Russians of violating air rules.

for the Advancement of Colored People, submitted a statement on behalf of 21 negro organizations.

An organization identifying itself as the Civil Rights Congress demanded that the convention refuse to seat delegates "who are elected by poll-tax vote or who are members or supporters of the Ku Klux Klan."

The negro and civil rights organizations distributed copies of their statement to the press prior to their appearance before the platform committee.

Southern members indicated they will submit these witnesses to a vigorous cross examination.

Walter White's statement reminded the Democratic party that negroes hold the balance of voting power in many congressional districts and in some northern states.

He said that in northern and border states this year there is a potential of 3,000,000 negro votes and that increasing negro votes in the south ultimately will mean "a replacement of the congressional representation by men and women more representative of all the people of the south."

POLIO OUTBREAK IN N. CAROLINA SPREADS

Raleigh, N. C., July 8—(P)—Infantile paralysis edged relentlessly today toward its record severity of 1944 in North Carolina.

Four of the state's 100 counties were regarded as epidemic areas as the number of cases for this year reached 405 yesterday, the worst on record for this time of year.

Thirty-seven cases were reported yesterday but this high figure was attributed to a three-day backlog of reports caused by health departments closing over the Fourth of July weekend.

No quarantines have been imposed on swimming pools and theaters, as was the case back in 1944, when a record 471 cases were reported. Parents have been cautioned, however, to keep children away from crowds.

Personal Paragraphs

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Baker, of Alto, Ill., are spending the week here as guests of Mrs. T. H. Conway, 518 Fourth avenue. Mrs. Baker's sister, Miss Elsiebeth Cohn of New York City, will arrive on Friday to spend the balance of the week at the Conway home.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hyde, 611 West Fifth avenue, had as guests over the past weekend the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. Piers, and their daughter, of New York City.

Half of U. S. Has Athlete's Foot

About 72 million Americans suffer from aching and burning of Athlete's Foot, according to a recent radio survey. But thousands of these folks with foot itch can get rid of it quickly, painlessly, with a new cure, the SAN-CURA Ointment. Here's a doctor's improved, lingering relief with a cooling effect. It's the only cure that spreads Athlete's Foot. Athlete's Foot is a skin disease that causes itching, burning, and stinging. It's not a cure, it's a relief. It's the only cure that spreads Athlete's Foot. Athlete's Foot is a skin disease that causes itching, burning, and stinging. It's not a cure, it's a relief. Poland Advised To Tell It To Russia

Washington, July 8—(P)—Poland's protest to the United States against plans to set up a separate government in western Germany went bouncing back to Warsaw today with this advice: Tell it to Russia.

Any nation which objects to the division of Germany, declared Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett, should complain not to the western powers, but "to the government primarily responsible for preventing these countries from cooperating in the general recovery program for Europe."

Poland filed the protest June 18, noting the "present deplorable division of Europe and Germany" resulting from the six-power London agreement to start the western half of the former enemy nation toward self-government without the eastern, Russian-controlled, half. The American, British and French occupation zones already are being merged under this plan.

Britain turned down a similar Polish protest Tuesday. Yesterday Lovett sent a crackling American reply to Polish ambassador Josef Winiewicz.

Firemen At Corydon Hold July Meeting

Corydon, July 8—Fire Chief Roy Adams was in charge of the regular meeting of the Corydon Volunteer Fire Department, held in the IOOF hall with an attendance of 20 persons.

Mr. Carey, of Jamestown, N. Y., was present to demonstrate small fire equipment, such as hand extinguishers and the like, which will be on display in local business places. A committee was named to promote a sales drive for such items.

Members also voted to hold another dance for the benefit of the department on July 30 in the IOOF hall.

Refusal of E. L. Van Sickle to be seated as president of the department will make necessary selection of some other member for this office in the near future.

A ruling was passed that all business pertaining to the department be presented at these monthly meetings.

Supervisors of Corydon township present for the meeting were Frank Hall and Mr. Mong, Sugar Run, and George Black, Corydon.

MASONIC OFFICIAL STRICKEN SUDDENLY

Pittsburgh, July 8—(P)—Robert J. Arnett, 61, Uniontown banker and grand treasurer general of the Supreme Council for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the U. S. died last night in Mercy Hospital.

Arnett came to Pittsburgh yesterday with his wife and son for a physical check-up of a heart attack a few hours after being admitted to the hospital.

He had been in the banking business in Uniontown for 40 years, starting with the National Bank of Fayette County.

honor for a dinner party and was complimented with an attractive birthday cake and gifts. The affair was sponsored by Captain and Mrs. A. S. Dysart and Mr. and Mrs. John Reid.

Friday Club members were entertained at the home of Mrs. L. J. Whyte. Three tables of five hundred were in play during the afternoon hours, followed with presentation of awards.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Funk, Jerry Tome Funk and Walker McK. Williams, Chester; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Funk and son, of Chicago, were honored guests at a supper party at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. William Brenton, Parker street, Warren.

The dance held Friday evening in IOOF Hall and sponsored by the Corydon Volunteer Fire department, drew a fair sized crowd. A Bradford orchestra furnished the music for both round and square dancing.

FW, Glendora Coffee Post
Victories To Open 2nd Half Campaign Of Sunset League

The second half-campaign of the team Sunset Baseball League ended last night with the V. F. W. Struthers Wells 4 to 2, a close scrap on the State Hospital diamond at North Warren. The Glendora Coffee thumped the State Hospital squad, 12 to 2, on an easy field.

The Vets were out and trail throughout most of the game, succeeded in punching across the markers in the fifth and sixth frames and two more in the bottom half of the final round of seven inning affair.

Most important field play for the Vets came in the sixth frame when Struthers, sporting a 2-0 lead, filled the sacks with three singles, but the rally was nipped the bud when Dick Kifer's toss from right field cut off Buzz Crocker at the plate.

J. Kifer for the Vets and Peterson for Struthers were the rival batters.

Bennett and Gheres combined their efforts on the rubber for Glendora Coffee to limit the Hospital squad to three hits.

Massa and Juliano were the big men at the plate, each getting two hits and each driving in two runs. F. Smith, State Hospital pitcher, aided eight safeties, but errors

Uniontown's Coal Barons took over undisputed possession of second place in the Middle Atlantic League last night by defeating the first-place Vandergrift Pioners while Erie was winning two from Johnstown.
The Barons scored three runs in the first inning and then coasted to a 5-1 win as Southpaw Lou Fisher allowed last year's pennant winners only six hits. Walter Cox and Tony West turned in five-hit pitching performances as Erie's Salvors ran their winning streak to three by defeating Johnstown 7-1 and 4-0.
In other games Butler defeated
New Castle 6-2 and Oil City whip-

Dodgers Hit Comeback Trail
With Sixth Straight Victory

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The unpredictable Brooklyn Dodgers were riding high today on the wings of a six-game winning streak—and threatening to catch the leaders before the month is out.

The latest Brooklyn victory, which not only enhanced the Dodgers' chances to retain their National League championship, but may have halted, for the time being at least, rumors that Leo Durocher is on the way out as manager.

It is no secret that Durocher must make a good showing this year or quit.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers find themselves in the best position they've been in all season. Last night's 4-3 victory in 11 innings over the Boston Braves at Ebbets Field left them in fifth place, only a game behind the first division New York Giants. They trail the pace-setting Braves by six and a half games, but are only four games behind in the important losing column.

The Cleveland Indians maintained their slim 10-percentage point edge on the Philadelphia Athletics in the American League race by routing the Chicago White Sox, 10-2. The A's also won their game, edging out the Yankees at New York, 4-3. Bob Feller buried his ninth victory for the Tribe, pitching a shutout ball after the first inning. The cellar-dwelling White Sox rapped Feller for two runs on three hits in the first inning.

National Forge Slates Tilt
Saturday With Erie Pontiacs

Always a perennial contender for the title in Erie, the Pontiacs boast a strong pitching staff in Games and Johnson, with Bales and Harding being held in reserve.

Jessie Jehro, brother of Sam Jehro of the Cleveland Buckeyes, will be at second, while Pete Bell, stellar athlete of Oil City, will hold down the initial sack. Completing the infield will be Harold Johnson at short and Crockett at third.

Out in the pastures will be Ponik, J. Thomas and P. Thomas. The Pontiacs at present are in the first division in the Glenwood League in Erie and a large turnout of fans is expected for Saturday's scrap.

Indian Farmhand
Twirls No-Hitter

By The Associated Press

When Southpaw Dick Rozek wins a game he does it but good. The Cleveland Indians farmhand, who has lost 12 times this season, worked out a no-hitter last night, the second one in the 1948 Eastern League.

It was a 2-1 win for the Wilkes-Barre Barons over the Elmira Pioneers.

A throw that sent the Pioneers' Robert Ruge to a hospital with a brain concussion and a possible skull fracture also kept Rozek from a shutout.

Ruge, who later was reported in good condition, was struck on the left temple when Catcher Dick Kineman stopped him short of second base in a third-inning steal. Elmira's Bachman meanwhile stole home, for the Pioneers' only run.

Elsewhere in the circuit, Hartford took two games from Binghamton, 10-4 and 6-3. Scranton downed Williamsport, 8-2, and the Utica Blue Sox asserted themselves as league leaders in a 6-2 win over the Albany Senators.

THE 400 PLAN OF
TED AND STAN!

By The Associated Press
(How They Did Yesterday)

Ted Williams, Red Sox—fired to center, singled to right, singled to center for his 100th hit, grounded into a double play and grounded out to second. His average remained at .392.

Stan Musial, Cardinals—Grounded to first, grounded to second for a double play, singled to right and singled again to right. He pulled a leg muscle on his last hit and a substitute runner was sent in for him. He raised his average one point to .415.

LACY SCHOOL NINE SHADES STARBICK

Lacy School shaded Starbick 3 to 2, in a Midget Baseball League tussle yesterday.

Batteries were Cook and Wollaston for Lacy, and Smith, Morris and Thompson, for Starbick.

New York — (NEA) Citation, the newest wonder horse, is closing rapidly on the leading money winners.

The $77,700 richly colored gelding, chestnut so easily packed up in the Belmont stakes, knocked out his total to $544,700, taking his fifth among the all-time money winners.

Each rich stakes he immediately ahead. The son of Bull Lea Hydroplane II is still improving, and is as sound as the Chase National.

With the Triple Crown barely behind him, Citation is within a machine shot of Whirlaway's record earnings, $501,161, and taking dead aim at Assault's $250,920, and those two greats are in retirement.

Ahead of them lie only stablemate Armed's $773,700 and Stymie's $859,635, and those two aged warriors aren't as swift as they once were.

Citation is now being pointed for the $50,000 Arlington Classic, July 31. Then comes the $50,000 American Derby at Washington Park, Aug. 23.

Calumet Farm definitely plans to send the colt against older horses in the $100,000 International Gold Cup at Belmont Park, Oct. 16, and he may run three-year-olds into the ground again in Belmont Park's $25,000 Lexington Realization at a mile and five-eighths by way of warming up for it.

It won't be at all surprising if he has a walk-over by the time the Pimlico Special rolls around. That's worth $25,000, but what owner wants to run his horse against a killer like Citation winner take all?

Barring an accident and if he doesn't fall off, Citation could possibly be crowding Stymie's $859,635 before the year is out. Again barring mishaps, he is practically a cinch to be the first winner of a million. He already has more than any other horse ever won at a similar stage of his career. He is only $35,000 below Assault's three-year-old record of $424,020.

The diarchs who demanded that a son of Bill Lea win at more than a mile-and-a-quarter for the first time finally were satisfied when Citation had a great time for himself in the Belmont Stakes at a mile-and-a-half.

Citation, which likes to run with horses and is inclined to loaf when in front, enjoyed himself thoroughly when Faraway stayed at his head for five furlongs. As someone remarked, you could almost hear the watch tick in Eddie Arcaro's head, as Citation did the first three quarters in the identical time of 6:24 1/5.

Citation turns on speed like a high-powered automobile whenever Arcaro shows him the whip, and the famous jockey let him really am for the first time at the five furlong pole until he pulled three lengths ahead. Arcaro then had an awful of horses until Escudr had cut his lead to two lengths at the three-furlong pole. Here, again, Citation was given his head for a jiffy, and it was all over. The final margin was six lengths.

Citation easily could have beat Count Fleet's record for the event, 2:28 1/5 which he tied.

Everybody new across that Citation is the swiftest thing since Adam of War, and he's never been all out.

Will Select
Track Team
At Evanston

Evanston, Ill., July 8.—(AP)—Selection of the American Olympic track team counted on to win firsts at London starts tomorrow morning in Northwestern University's Dyche stadium and concluded Saturday afternoon.

There was increasing confidence on all hands. With one notable exception, the 200 athletes have come this far without serious injuries. Even Gil Dodds, best of the distance men who has a strained Achilles tendon in his left leg, is rounding back into shape.

Near Monday the track squad of about 65 men will assemble in New York for "processing" before the U. S. S. America sails on Wednesday with most of the American team. The exact number in track depends on how many spares are carried to round out the sprint and 1,600 meter relay teams.

The 1948 American Olympic team looks for eight of its 10 first in the field events, and two in the hurdles.

But there is a possibility one American may achieve a sprint victory which would make up for any losses over the longer flat races. He is Mel Patton of Southern California, slender and delicate. Whether his legs can stand the long series of Olympic trial heats is a big question.

Everybody reads the Times-Mirror.

Bees, Welders
Shooting For High Stakes

Both teams will be shooting for important stakes tonight at 6:30 o'clock when the Busy Bees tangle with Bill's Welding Shop on the West Side field in the play-off of a postponed City Softball League game.

A win for the Bees will give them first half championship flag, while victory for the Welders will tie up the race, necessitating a play-off for the flag.

Meanwhile, League President J. E. Pace announced the second half schedule for the loop, as follows:

July 13—Bill's Welders vs. Shrubert Oil.

July 18—Sheffield Vets vs. Recreation Center.

July 14—Emblem Oil vs. Busy Bee.

How KOEHLER'S IS BREWED and BOTTLED

13,000 Gallon Brew Kettle

The most dramatic process in the art of making beer, the giant brew kettle attracts and fascinates most visitors. The malt extract (described last week) is run into this gleaming kettle and brought to a boil. Hops are added (both IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC hops are used) at different stages of the boiling. This is the operation which gives KOEHLER'S its characteristic aroma and distinctive flavor. During this process the most rigid control is exercised. The hops must be properly blended and added at the correct times. Boiling must not be over or under done. The brew kettle is used twice each day—or in other words, enough KOEHLER'S to fill 250,000 bottles KOEHLER'S employees (there are 150 of them) are doing everything to make "There is no better BEER!" mean just what it says.

There is no better BEER!

Office for Food and Feed Conservation Suggests:

A "PEACE PLATE" FOR TODAY

Save Wheat! Save Meat! Save the Peace!

Hot, crispy croquettes fashioned with eggs and macaroni white down meat pills. For eggs are plentiful right now and meat is comparatively scarce.

Onion-flavored and crumb-covered, egg croquettes are a distinctive main dish. Add tangy tomato sauce and they're a treat. And need we mention how nourishing they are!

It's a protein-packed meal if your salad is chilled cottage cheese mixed with top milk and flavor-brightened with carves or new green onion tops.

EGG CROQUETTES
2 tablespoons minced onion
2 tablespoons diced celery
2 tablespoons fat, melted
4 tablespoons flour
1 can milk
1 1/2 cups cooked macaroni (5/8 cup dry in one-inch pieces)
4 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
5 seasons parsley, chopped
Salt, pepper, other seasonings
Flour dry bread crumbs
Brown onion and celery slightly in fat. Blend in the flour, add the milk and cook, stirring, until thickened. Add the macaroni, eggs, parsley and seasonings. Chill in a shallow pan.
Shape into croquettes, roll in crumbs. Place on a greased platter and bake in a moderately hot oven (375°F.) for 30 minutes. Serve with tomato sauce. Serves 4.

Use of light engine oil and a fully-charged battery will reduce winter starting trouble to a minimum.

Egg Croquettes—Tomato Sauce
Mixed Spring Greens
Cottage Cheese Salad with Chives
Carrot Curls
Whole Wheat Muffins
Blueberry Crumb Pudding
FOOD TIPS: We should have cottage cheese more often than we do.
Nutritionists recommend it highly. It's cheaper and more plentiful in spring and summer.
You may find two types of cottage cheese at your grocer's. One is the sour milk type, sometimes called "old fashioned" or "farmer's" cottage cheese.
The other is the sweet milk type, made by a special process giving larger, softer curds than those in cheese made from sour milk.
Choose either type of cottage cheese—whichever your family prefers. Both are excellent protein foods.
There's as much protein in one and a fourth cups—10 ounces—as in a pound of beef with a moderate amount of bone and fat. These 10 ounces cost only about 15 cents.
For cottage cheese prices run about 17 cents for a 12-ounce package in some cities. A pound would cost about 23 cents.

Lie Detector Being Put To Work Save Money For Firms

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY
A Newfeature Writer

Chicago—The lie detector is being put to work now to save money for business firms and to aid research.

The ranks of specialists in what is known as the detection of deception are growing too.

Leonard Keeler, who brought out the Keeler polygraph, says 200 of the devices are in use. Police departments have most of them. Others are being operated by doctors, universities and hospitals in investigations of nervous, mental and speech defects. The Keeler machine is most widely used of the lie detectors which have been developed.

Keeler says the profession is "growing every year."

"Eventually," he adds, "there will be machines and operators in every city over 100,000 population."

He runs a school to train men for the work. There are 18 men in the current class.

Most of them are from the U. S. Army. There are two from Washington State College, a post office inspector, and policemen from Providence, R. I., Elkhart, Ind. and the Illinois state force.

They are taught psychology, what they need to know about how the body functions, and the art of handling questions and the detector.

Keeler, now 44, has been in private practice since he left the Northwestern University Scientific Crime Detection Laboratory in 1938.

The polygraph looks like a short wave radio set with attachments. An arm cuff takes pulse and blood pressure rates. A chest harness checks the breathing rate. Hand plates give clues in action of the sweat glands. Three pens write the record on a moving sheet of paper.

Each person has a normal pattern on the graph. Fear causes changes in that pattern. Charges indicate he is not telling the truth.

Keeler and his aides work with the police, lawyers and insurance companies. They quiz witnesses and suspects. Employees of banks, stores and other business houses are examined when cash or goods are missing.

Some of the firms have the tests run from time to time. This

"Now don't propose to her tonight! I said yes to your father on a beautiful July night like this, and he was never as handsome as you!"

Carnival Is Discussed By Local Jaycees

Fifty members of the Warren Chamber of Commerce met in special session last evening in the YMCA to discuss their part in next week's appearance of the Penn Premier Shows in Warren.

President Chuck Tranter called on Sam Bonavita to explain the agreement between the carnival and the Jaycees. Mr. Bonavita stated that it will be necessary to have about 30 members on the grounds each evening to sell and take tickets. Those who were not at the meeting will be contacted and signed up for several night's work.

The Penn Premier Show is the largest carnival to play Warren in many years. In addition to 16 rides are ten shows including a lion act and a motorcycle drone. Saturday afternoon, all children will be admitted free, there will be half price rides and a bicycle will be given away.

The money realized by the Jaycees from the appearance of this show will be used for community service projects sponsored by the Junior Chamber.

Bill Lundahl, chairman of the social committee reported that plans are complete for the Jaycees first social outing on July 22nd. This will be a box social for members and wives at the Cornplanter Rod and Gun Club and members are asked to make their reservations this week.

Penn'a Grade Crude Winner In Coast Suit

Los Angeles, Calif.—Pleas of guilty to charges of misrepresentation of Pennsylvania oils, which were in fact non-Pennsylvania oils, were entered earlier this week in the Los Angeles Superior Court before Judge A. M. Rinnells, by Jean P. Satlin doing business as Golden State Oil & Grease Mfg. Co. Satlin entered a plea of guilty to six counts of a charging affidavit filed by C. L. McCaughey, Los Angeles attorney who represented the Pennsylvania Grade Crude Oil Association, Oil City, Pa., in the matter. Judge Rinnells entered a suspended sentence of $3,000 and 30 days imprisonment.

The charges grew out of sales of two brands of lubricating oil known as "Bear Penn" and "Golden State," both of which were misrepresented to be 100% pure Pennsylvania. During the five days of trial the association produced a number of technical witnesses from both the Petroleum Refining Laboratory of the Pennsylvania State College, State College, Pa., and Armour Research Foundation Laboratory at Chicago, Ill., who testified to the non-Pennsylvania character of these oils. Their findings were based upon elaborate identification procedures which have been developed by both laboratories and which were presented in detail to the court. These identification tests proved conclusively the non-Pennsylvania character of the oils tested for the association.

Among witnesses presented by the association were Dr. F. L. Car-nahan, R. E. Heish, Frances Skul-man and E. L. Vost of the Penn-sylvania State College and Dr. W. C. McCrone and Geraldine Corcoran of Armour Research Founda-tion. E. H. Fallon, field service representative for the association at Los Angeles, was also a witness during the course of the trial.

Pleas of guilty on similar charges were entered earlier this week by William R. Houston and Nor-man Gage, doing business as H & G Oil Company. The charges in this matter grew out of their sales of brands of lubricating oil known as "Pen Vis" and "Ben Hur," both of which were misrepresented as Pennsylvania oil. These charges were also based upon a charging affidavit filed by C. L. McCaughey on behalf of the association. Judge Rinnells entered a suspended sentence of $2,700 and 21 days in jail against Houston and $1,200 and 12 days in jail against Gage.
